THIS AGREEMENT IS SUBJECT TO ARBITRATION PURSUANT TO S.C. CODE ANN. §15-48-10 ET. AL., AND THE FEDERAL ARBITRATION ACT §9 USC 1 ET SEQ.

Special Notices: The laws and regulations governing the financial services we provide are complex. To ensure your understanding of our relationship with you, we provide this detailed agreement which explains both your responsibilities and ours.

Cellular Phone Contact Policy: By providing us with a telephone number for a cellular phone or other wireless device, including a number that you later convert to a cellular number, you are expressly consenting to receiving communications- including but not limited to prerecorded or artificial voice message calls, text messages, and calls made by an automatic telephone dialing system-from us and our affiliates and agents at that number. This express consent applies to each such telephone number that you provide to us now or in the future and permits such calls for non-marketing purposes. Calls and messages may incur access fees from your cellular provider.

Active Military Members and Dependents: Any terms or conditions herein contrary to the Military Lending Act ("MLA") are void for the period(s) during which you are entitled to the protections of the MLA.

Please also note that the terms of this Agreement and the Rate Sheet and Fee Schedule may change from time to time as provided for in this Agreement and applicable laws.

INTRODUCTION

This Agreement and Disclosures and the Rate Sheet and Fee Schedule ("Schedule") explain the rules which govern your account(s) and account services with us. Please read these carefully and keep them in a safe and convenient place.

Special Note: Your relationship with the Credit Union is also governed by state and federal laws, which may change from time to time. The body of law is too large and complex to be reproduced here. The purpose of this Agreement and Disclosures is to: (1) summarize the rules applicable to common Transactions; (2) establish rules to govern Transactions not regulated by state or federal law; (3) establish variations that will apply to certain rules, events or Transactions as permitted by applicable law; and (4) provide you with certain disclosures and information regarding our policies as required by law. By signing a Membership Application or Account Change Form or your use or continued use of any account or account services after receiving this Agreement and Disclosures, notice of its availability or notification of any change in terms, you, jointly and severally, agree that you understand and agree to the terms and conditions stated in this Agreement and Disclosures, and the Rate Sheet and Fee Schedule, as amended from time to time.

MEMBERSHIP, ACCOUNTS AND ACCOUNT SERVICES AGREEMENT GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- 1. Terms, Conditions and Limitations of Your Relationship with the Credit Union: The following terms govern our relationship with you. All Credit Union services are further governed by the terms and conditions set forth in any future agreements and/or disclosures together with the Credit Union's Bylaws, Policies and Procedures, which are herein collectively referred to as "Agreement". To the extent there is any conflict between the terms of this Agreement and any of these items or any other documents, the terms of this Agreement shall govern. This Agreement governs all services whether opened now or in the future. This Agreement may be amended or revised by us at any time, and any change in the Agreement shall be immediately effective unless otherwise specifically required by applicable law. This Agreement is binding upon the account owner and all parties hereto together with their heirs, successors, assigns and any other person claiming any right or interest under or through said parties. Otherwise, to the extent there is any conflict between the terms of this Agreement and any of these items or any other documents, the terms of this Agreement shall govern. You agree at all times that you will comply with all App li cable Laws. " Applicable Laws" shall include: "(i) Visa U.S.A. Inc. Bylaws, Visa U.S.A. Inc. Operating Regulations, Visa U.S.A. Inc. Certificate of Incorporation, Visa International Bylaws , and Visa International Operating Regulations ; (ii) NACHA's (The National Automated Clearing House Association) Operating Rules (iii ) the Operating Regulations of any network through whom you initiate or process any transaction(s); and (iv) any and all laws, treaties, rules , regulations, or regulatory guidance of the government of the United States, as the same may be amended and in effect from time to time; and you agree that such Applicable Law shall govern despite any other general or specific terms or conditions set forth in the entirety of this Agreement. The Credit Union is not in any way limited in the use of the name of any person or entity that claims trademark, copyright or other such status regarding a name in the ordinary course of Credit Union business, in providing any services we may offer; or in using such name in any other manner authorized by our agreements or applicable laws. This agreement governs personal, family and household accounts and you agree that all accounts and services will be used for those purposes. If we in our discretion ascertain that an account's primary use is for business, we may require the account/service be closed or converted to a business account subject to business account disclosures.

2. General Definitions / Requirements / Biometrics: In this Agreement and Disclosures the words "you" or "your(s)" mean everyone that signs any Membership Application or Account Change Form or is authorized to make Transactions regarding your account(s) as provided herein or by governing law, including any account service(s). "Credit Union," "We," "us," or "our" means the Credit Union providing this Agreement to you. "Access Device" means any card, electronic access device and/or any codes, passwords, or personal identification numbers (PIN) that we issue to allow you to access and/or use any account or other services. With regard to online or internet transactions an access device shall also include any computer, smart-phone or other hardware used to make or process a transaction.

Use of Biometrics/Fingerprints: The Credit Union or various apps you may choose to use may provide access to your accounts and services through the use of fingerprints or other biometrics. You agree we may obtain and use your biometrics provided our sole purpose is for authentication. You agree we may require the use of such biometrics and will cooperate with the Credit Union in implementing any requirements we or the third party may require associated with this technology. Biometric technologies may be used for authentication. A biometric identifier measures an individual's unique physical characteristics and compares it to a stored digital template for authentication. Physical characteristics can be a thumbprint, fingerprint, voice recognition, facial recognition, or iris pattern. A biometric identifier can be used as a single or multifactor process. We may require the use of biometrics and/or fingerprinting with regard to any service we offer; and any refusal to cooperate with such use shall allow us to refuse to make any transaction, including but not limited to cashing any on-us item presented by any holder.

Important Notice on Biometrics: When you enable biometric access every person with enrolled access on your accounts, services or device used to access your accounts and services will have access to your accounts and services, and may access your accounts, view your information, conduct transactions on your behalf, and has your authority to engage in these activities. Enrolled biometric access expands the number of persons who have access to your account regardless of the signers listed on your account agreement with us. CREDIT UNION ADVISES YOU TO REVIEW AND CONFIRM THAT ALL REGISTERED BIOMETRICS BELONG TO INDIVIDUALS WITH AUTHORITY AS DESCRIBED ABOVE. BY ACTIVATING ACCESS/SERVICES REQUESTED BY YOU THE CREDIT UNION RELIES ON YOUR REPRESENTATION THAT ANYONE WITH A REGISTERED BIOMETRIC HAS PROPER AUTHORITY TO ACCESS AND USE YOUR ACCOUNTS AND ASSOCIATED ACCOUNT INFORMATION.

"Authorized User" and "Authorized Use" means any person, entity, and/or tool which has actual, implied or apparent authority, or to whom any owner has at any time given any information, access device or documentation that enables the ability to access, withdraw, make transactions to or from your accounts, or to use any of your account services. This shall include agentic commerce/shopping or financial management bots that you authorize (this includes artificial intelligence (AI) tools that help with potential orders and can place orders, reoccurring or otherwise). If you authorize use of your access devices that authority shall continue until you specifically revoke such authority by notifying the Credit Union in writing or as required by applicable laws. If we or any of our agents contact, you regarding any transaction(s) and you verify the transaction(s) you agree we may rely on your verification; and that any such transaction(s) shall be deemed authorized by you. If you fail to maintain the security of these access codes and the Credit Union suffers a loss or otherwise makes a determination that the Credit Union is at risk for potential loss, we may terminate any or all of your account services immediately. This definition is intended to be construed broadly and includes without limitation all users acting under a written document such as a power of attorney as well as any person or entity that is authorized to make deposits or debits to or from your accounts with us. An authorized signer may stop payment on an item they have drawn or otherwise ordered but may not close any account(s) or terminate any services without the owner's specific written consent. "Check" means an acceptable written "instrument" on your account(s) and includes the term "share draft."

"Instrument" means a written order as defined by Articles 3 and 4 of the Uniform Commercial Code pursuant to the laws of the State set forth in this Agreement. "Owner" means the person(s) who have a present ownership interest in the sums on deposit in the multiple party (joint) accounts with the Credit Union, subject to the Credit Union's lien rights or any security interest. A person is not an "owner" unless specifically designated as such in a completed and signed Membership Application or Account Change Form. "Shares" for the purpose of your pledge to secure your obligations to the Credit Union, our common law right of set off, and otherwise, "share(s)" mean all deposits in any share savings, share draft, club, share certificate, P.O.D., revocable trust or custodial account(s), whether jointly or individually held -- regardless of contributions, that you have on deposit now or in the future, all of which are deemed "general deposits," for the purpose of your pledge. Your pledge does not include any I.R.A., Keogh, tax escrow, irrevocable trust or fiduciary account in which you do not have a vested ownership interest. "Transaction or transaction" means any deposit, order, transfer, payment, purchase via POS transaction or otherwise, withdrawal or other instruction relating to any account or account service provided by the Credit Union. The Credit Union may return debits (ACH payments as well as other transactions) submitted for payment against your accounts if the amount of the debit exceeds the funds available in the applicable account. Each time we return a debit for insufficient funds, we will assess an NSF fee in the amount shown on our current Fee Schedule for each returned debit item. The entity that submitted the debit may submit another debit to the Credit Union even if we have already returned the prior debit for insufficient funds in the account. If the resubmitted debit again exceeds the funds available in the account, the Credit Union will again return the debit, resulting in an additional NSF fee. Thus, you may be charged multiple NSF fees in connection with a single debit that has been returned for insufficient funds multiple times. The reason for this is that when you authorize the merchant to process a payment from your account that merchant may present the transaction multiple times and in various ways when payment is declined for insufficient funds or otherwise. There is no way the Credit Union can identify such actions by the merchant you authorized.

All instructions to us in any manner shall be given in English; and any instructions given shall be given using simple numerical methods (e.g. to request one hundred dollars you will use: "$100" "$100.00" or the English equivalent: "One Hundred Dollars."). We are not obligated to follow any other instructions.

3. Important Conditions that may Affect Access to Services, Credit Union Offices and/or Limitations on Services:

- a. Compliance with Laws and Inappropriate Transactions or Account Relationship: You agree to comply with all laws, rules and regulations. You also warrant and agree that you will not use any Credit Union Accounts or Services, including but not limited to loans, to make or facilitate any illegal or inappropriate transaction(s) as determined by applicable law as we in our discretion may deem inappropriate; and that any such use, including any such authorized use, will constitute a breach of this Agreement. Certain federal and/or state laws or Third-Party Service Providers' Rules may limit or prohibit certain transactions such as (but not limited to) those coded as possible gambling transactions. The Credit Union may decline to accept, process or pay any transaction that we believe to be illegal, improper or unenforceable (regarding your obligation to pay us or otherwise) under applicable law; or which is otherwise limited or prohibited, including but not limited to any transaction involving or relating to any gambling activity. We may also close or terminate accounts or services which we believe violate your obligations under this section. Such prohibitions or limitations may affect some otherwise proper or allowable transactions such as debits, charges or other transactions at or relating to a hotel-casino. You understand and agree such limitations/prohibitions are not within the Credit Union's control and that the Credit Union will not have any liability, responsibility or culpability whatsoever for any such use by you or any authorized user(s); or for declining to accept, process, or pay any such transaction.
- b. Restrictions on Accounts. The Credit Union may limit, refuse, close or terminate any account or service that we deem to constitute a breach of this Agreement. Unless an express exception is made by the Credit Union in its sole discretion, we do not offer services to "Money Service Businesses", "Internet Gambling Businesses" and "Cannabis Businesses", or other businesses that we determine violate the limitations in this section. By way of illustration: "Cannabis Businesses" are defined by the Credit Union to be any person or business that (i) engages in the sale, production or storage of any form of cannabis, marijuana or hemp, and/or (ii) is required to be licensed and/or registered with a government entity due to the business engaging in an activity related to any cannabis related industry. The Credit Union may, at its sole discretion, also apply these restrictions on other businesses or individuals directly or indirectly related to a cannabis business.
- c. Limitations on Account and Services for Members who Reside in Non-US Countries or Territories; or in Certain US States: The Credit Union may limit, refuse, close or terminate any account or service if: (1) we deem it necessary due to legal/regulatory requirements of a foreign country that are not directly applicable to US residents; or (2) we deem it to be in the Credit Union's best interests to not provide accounts or services due to potential exposures or obligations under non-US laws, rules or regulations. The Credit Union may also limit, refuse, close or terminate any account or service if: (1) we deem it necessary due to legal/regulatory requirements of a state in which we do not maintain a physical presence and/or provide services only to a limited number of persons residing in that state; or (2) we deem it to be in the Credit Union's best interests to not provide accounts or services due to potential exposures or obligations arising or related to the laws of a state where we do not maintain a physical presence.
- d. Virtual Currency. We do not act as a cryptocurrency exchange service provider nor do we accept any type of virtual currency for deposits or for loan payments, nor do we support any purchases or investments in virtual currencies. Cryptocurrencies are not insured by the NCUA, FDIC, SIPC, or any other federal deposit insurance program, and can be considered highly speculative, volatile, and subject to fraud and loss. Should you use your CPM accounts or CPM credit cards or debit cards to engage in virtual currency transactions you accept all risks arising or relating to your investments and purchases. We will have no obligation to you for any losses you incur if you engage in these activities. You agree we have no responsibility to detect, block, or limit your transactions in virtual currencies should you choose to engage in such activity.

- e. Monitoring. We monitor all members and transactions. If prohibited activity, suspicious activity and/or unsatisfactory account handling is detected, we will review the account and take action either by limiting services or closing the account. (Refer to Termination or Restriction of Account(s) and Service(s)).
  - f. Natural Disasters, Pandemics or Significant Health Concerns and Other Acts of God: FORCE MAJEURE. Neither Party will be liable for any failure or delay in performing an obligation under this Agreement that is due to any of the following causes, to the extent beyond its reasonable control: acts of God, accident, riots, war, terrorist act, epidemic, pandemic, quarantine, civil commotion, breakdown of communication facilities, natural catastrophes, governmental declarations, acts or omissions, changes in laws or regulations, national strikes, fire, explosion, generalized lack of availability of raw materials or energy. For the avoidance of doubt, Force Majeure shall not include (a) financial distress nor the inability of either party to make a profit or avoid a financial loss, (b) changes in market prices or conditions, or (c) a party's financial inability to perform its obligations hereunder. This clause shall continue to apply for a reasonable period of time after the cause addressed above has subsided sufficient to allow resumption of services.
  - g. OFFICIAL HEALTH GUIDANCE: All Credit Union offices reserve the right to follow/implement official health guidance issued by governmental entities and/or health organizations which may include but are not limited to: Closure of Credit Union Offices; Social Distancing; Requiring the use of Personal Protective Equipment (masks, gloves, clear eye coverings or other requirements). These requirements may vary from office to office; and may change from time to time.
  - h. FACE MASKS: For security reasons all face masks are prohibited unless medically required. If a mask is medically required, members/non-members, contractors, and staff, will be asked to temporarily remove it before assistance may be provided and completing a transaction for proper identification. If you feel you cannot remove your mask temporarily for identification in the branch you may use the Credit Union's Drive-Thru as an alternative. We will also consider any requests for special appointments where your identity can be verified before entering Credit Union property.
4. Members with Disabilities: We will accommodate reasonable requests to assist members with disabilities. In order to do so you agree to notify us of any disability and/or accommodation requests. You will notify us regarding any service providers you wish to use; and you will provide us with information to allow us to identify the service providers.
  5. Taxpayer Identification Numbers (TIN) and Certification and Identification: Pursuant to the Membership Application or Account Change Form used to open your account(s) with us, you provided a certification regarding the accuracy of your taxpayer identification number (usually your Social Security Number) and whether your account is subject to backup withholding under the Internal Revenue Code. This certification applies to any and all accounts you have with us now or in the future, unless you provide written notification to us that specifically provides otherwise. You agree to comply with all our requirements for identification which we may require, including photographing, video recording and providing fingerprints or other biometrics.
  6. Credit Union's Right to Investigate: It is agreed that it is critical to the Credit Union and its members that the Credit Union have full rights to investigate all transactions, methods and means of making transactions to protect its members and the Credit Union. Therefore, it is agreed that upon notification of any claim of error, unauthorized transaction(s) or other notification related to or arising from any transaction(s), methods or means of making transactions the Credit Union shall have full rights of investigation to extend to all persons, means and methods of making transactions. It is expressly agreed that this shall specifically include the right to inspect and scan a member's or users access device(s) including but not limited to computers, tablets and smartphones; and to report the Credit Union's findings of such investigation to all owners and/or users.
  7. Credit Reports, Membership-Account Eligibility, Other Credit Union Services and Social Media: To verify your eligibility or continued eligibility for membership, any account(s), service(s) , or loan products; increases or decreases in services and/or credit limits, now and in the future; or as needed to comply with any applicable law, regulation or governmental agency requirements including but not limited to escheatment/abandoned property, privacy, or other issues that may affect your rights, or pursuant to any reasonable actions we take to ensure our compliance with such laws, regulations or governmental agency requirements (all of which are deemed permissible purposes by you and us) you authorize us to make inquiry to determine your employment history and to obtain information concerning any accounts with other institutions and your credit history, including consumer credit reports. You agree that this authority applies to any account, account- related service, loans or other financial products you request or which we may offer or make available to you. We may also report information concerning your account(s) and credit to others. You also understand that you may elect from time to time to use Credit Union or other parties' social media tools and sources; that there is no claim of privacy or privilege regarding information shared or discernible from such use or sharing; and the use of such information by us does not violate your privacy or other rights. If you have consented to communicating with us via social media we may use any social media addresses you may establish from time to time.

8. Privacy and Confidentiality: Every person on the Credit Union's premises has the expectation and right that their private and confidential information will be protected and remain private and confidential. Thus, the Credit Union prohibits any photography, filming or recording of any type using any device that has or may have the potential to record by any means on any Credit Union premises, including at or near any ATM or other device which may display or allow determination of confidential information without the Credit Union's prior express permission. Violation of this provision shall be grounds for enforcement of all options under paragraph 26 of this Agreement. The Credit Union's general privacy policy is provided later in this Agreement.

Agreed Exception to Privacy Restrictions – Fraud or Financial Exploitation: It is agreed that fraud and financial exploitation are serious matters that can expose both members and the Credit Union to risks and losses. This particularly affects the elderly but can harm anyone. To help combat suspected fraud and financial exploitation it is agreed that the Credit Union may report such suspicions to persons (including but not limited to family members) who we in good faith believe may be able to provide assistance and/or protections. The option to report is completely voluntary and imposes no obligations on the Credit Union.

9. Deposits to Your Account(s) and Instruments Paid/Cashed: Funds may be deposited to any account, in any manner that is acceptable to us. Deposits may be made by mail, in person at any of our offices having facilities to accept deposits, or by direct deposit or other electronic funds transfer allowed by us. Should we accept a deposit from you by any electronically created item (example includes, but is not limited to, remotely deposited check) you will indemnify us for any claim by any subsequent third party for claim of loss for a subsequent deposit of the same item, whether such action was authorized by you or not.

If you voluntarily give information about your account (such as our routing number and your account number) to someone and authorize them to draw against your account, we may charge your account and pay any items, including remotely created checks initiated by the person to whom you gave the information. You also agree that we may pay an electronically created item even though the item was not created from an original paper check, whether presented in the form of a remotely created check or an electronic item. You authorize us to continue to honor items or debits from a payee previously authorized by you, until you instruct us to cease to do so, whether or not the payee is acting within the scope of your initial authorization, subject only to such liability as may be imposed upon us by law. If you want us to stop honoring items from a payee previously authorized by you, you must submit a Stop Payment Order. See section 21 for additional information on Stop Payment Orders. Until you notify us that such items are not authorized, we can continue to pay them and will not be liable to you even though the items are not in accordance with any authorizations you may have given."

You agree that we are under no obligation to verify whether the name and account number shown on the remotely created checks are accurate. If any information on a remotely created checks is incomplete, inaccurate, or in error, you agree that we may, at our sole discretion, either pay the remotely created checks and charge your account for the item as drawn or refuse to honor the remotely created checks and, without prior notice to you, return the item unpaid. You further agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless for losses resulting from our honoring or dishonoring any such debit.

- a. Endorsements: You authorize us, in our discretion, to accept transfers, checks, drafts, and other items for deposit into any of your accounts if they are made payable to, or to the order of any one or more owners on the account, whether or not endorsed by all payees. You authorize us to supply missing endorsements of any owners. You agree to endorse all items pursuant to applicable laws and regulations. We may require a special endorsement for mobile check deposits. If any endorsement or any other markings you or any prior endorser has made on the check cause any delay or error in processing the item for payment, you will be responsible for any loss incurred by us due to the delay or error. You agree that any check deposits using mobile deposit will be subject to terms and conditions of that service and the corresponding Online Banking Services Agreement and Disclosure, including their special endorsement requirements.

- b. Substitute Checks: You agree not to deposit any substitute check or similar item that you have created, or for which no financial institution has provided any substitute check warranties and indemnity. If you do so, you agree to indemnify us for all losses we incur in connection with the substitute check or item. You agree not to deposit any substitute check without our consent.
- c. E-Checks: When you or any person with authority authorize any E-Check you agree: (1) that we may pay the item as submitted to us; (2) that you shall be solely responsible for all information transmitted regarding such item(s) including but not limited to the payee(s), the amount(s) of the item(s), and endorsements or the lack thereof; and (3) you agree to indemnify us for all losses we incur in connection with any E-Check you authorize.
- d. Collection of Deposits: In handling deposits to your account, we act only as your agent for collection and assume no responsibility beyond the exercise of ordinary care. By signing the Membership Application or Account Change Form or using any accounts or services, you specifically waive your rights to notice of non-payment, dishonor or protest regarding all items presented for collection. We have the right to refuse any order, transfer or deposit, limit the amount that may be offered for deposit and to return all or any part of a deposit. Special instructions for handling an item are effective only if made in writing and accepted by us separately along with the item in question. We will not be liable for any default or negligence of correspondents or for loss in transit, and each correspondent will only be liable for its own negligence. We are authorized to pursue collection of previously dishonored items (including re-presentation), and in so doing we may permit the payor bank to hold an item beyond the midnight deadline. Items that we present or re-present may be truncated or converted to an electronic or other format. If an item is not paid you are fully responsible for any loss, we may incur in seeking to collect the item for you. Items not drawn by you upon us are not overdrafts but are Insufficient Funds Items ("NSFs") that you must pay to us if we incur any loss in seeking to collect such items for you.
- e. Payroll Distributions: When you direct part or all of your pay to CPM as a recurring direct deposit, we offer a free service which allows you to distribute portions of your pay in the form of automated transfers to other CPM accounts and loans based on your instructions. Our execution of your distribution instructions is automated and is triggered based on our receipt of your direct deposit from the payroll source you specify. We require you to give us notice of five (5) business days in advance of your payroll direct deposit settlement date of any change to your payroll distribution instructions, including to start a distribution, stop a distribution, change a destination account or loan, change the amount of a distribution, or change the specified payroll source. If the source of your payroll changes you must update your instructions to specify the new source. If our only instructions are to distribute payroll from the prior source, and no more payroll comes in from that prior source, then no further distributions will occur. If your employer changes your pay schedule or pays out of cycle, such as for an incentive, you should change your instructions and monitor your accounts for any unintended consequences.
- f. Direct Deposit or Transfer Authorization/Bankruptcy. If you file bankruptcy and fail to cancel any instructions in your direct deposit or transfer authorization, then you hereby instruct your employer and us to continue to make and apply deposits, make loan payments in order to avoid delinquency and other transfers in accordance with your authorization, until written notification is received by us to discontinue any payments or transfers.
- g. Multiple Payees: Unless any check, share draft or other instrument expressly indicates that the item is payable to conjunctive payees, the instrument shall be deemed payable in the alternative. If there is any ambiguity, the instrument shall be deemed payable in the alternative (example: a check payable to "A and B" is a conjunctive instrument. A check payable to "A or B;" "A, B;" "A/B", where "A and B are listed on separate lines;" or otherwise, where not expressly conjunctive are payable in the alternative).
- h. Final Payment: All items, deposits, ACH (Automated Clearing House) transfers, or other transfers credited to your account are provisional and subject to our receipt of final payment. If final payment is not received, we may charge your account for the amount of such items or transfers or both and impose all fees/charges set forth in the Schedule without notice. We have no obligation to provide any separate notice under this provision; and you agree that our indication of any credits or debits hereunder reflected on your periodic statements shall be deemed sufficient notice.

- i. Checks from Source Other Than Credit Union Approved Vendor and Use of Wash Preventive Ink: The Credit Union approves the vendor for check printing due to their high standards. Other companies that provide check printing services may not meet the high standards of our approved vendor(s) or may print terms or limitations that we do not agree to on such checks. Also, you understand that checks can be washed unless you use a wash preventive ink. Therefore, you acknowledge and agree that we have no responsibility or liability to you whatsoever resulting, arising or relating from/to: alterations, forgery, non-payment; returns as no account/insufficient funds or otherwise; limitations we do not specifically agree to in writing; or any other processing/payment error with regard to any check that is not printed by our approved vendor(s) or your failure to use wash preventive ink in the writing of any check(s).

We require that checks purchased or printed from sources other than the Credit Union contain security features that will prevent the check from being counterfeited. The minimum features required are an artificial watermark, "VOID" pantograph, micro-print lines, bleed-through check numbering, a warning band and a Regulation CC endorsement backer on the reverse of the check. If you use checks that do not meet these minimum required counterfeit-avoidance security standards, and your checks are counterfeited, we may refuse to honor your request for reimbursement of any losses you may suffer.

- j. ACH deposits may be posted early: It is our practice to post ACH deposits on the day we receive the posting information even if prior to the settlement date (the date CPM receives funds). Our ability to post ACH deposits a day or more early is subject to numerous factors, including actions by third parties outside our of control. CPM makes no guarantee to post ACH deposits prior to the settlement dates, and our past ability to post early should not be relied on for future ACH deposits.
- k. ACH deposits may be subject to investigation and hold: NACHA Rules that govern ACH transactions mandate that financial institutions implement risk-based fraud monitoring for ACH transactions, covering both unauthorized transactions and those made under false pretenses. Under these Rules we may place holds on ACH deposits to investigate potential fraud and/or suspicious patterns. These holds will generally be for 1-2 days, but may extend for longer periods.

10. Transactions from Your Account(s): Generally, you may withdraw and/or transfer funds from your account(s) at any time subject to the limitations set forth in this section and the Funds Availability Policy in effect at the time of the deposit. Payments upon your order may be made in coin, bills, or other instruments or via electronic means at our option.

- a. Payment Order of Your Transactions: To assist you in handling your account(s) with us, we are providing you with the following information regarding how we process the items that you authorize. The order in which items are processed may affect the fees assessed to your account. Some transactions are received individually and in real time or very near real time, and others are received in groups as part of batch files. A batch file may include several transactions for you which are all received at the same time in the same file.

- 1. For individual transactions which we receive in real time or near real time it is our policy to post them as we receive them.

Payment Order – individual transactions we receive in real time or very near real time

Transactions which are posted real time or very near real time to when you conduct them:
Transactions you conduct at our teller counters such as deposits*, withdrawals, and cashing on-us checks
Your ATM deposits* and withdrawals
Your debit card purchases conducted with a PIN
Authorizations (holds) for your debit card purchases conducted using the VISA® network
Transfers you conduct using our automated phone system (800-366-4725)
Transfers you conduct using our CPM Anytime Online Banking or CM Mobile Banking systems

*Note that funds availability rules apply and funds deposited on a real time basis may not be made available immediately. For example, checks you deposit may be subject to uncollected funds holds. See our funds availability policy for details.
 **The corresponding settlements may lag for hours or days based on when the merchants submit them. We post settlement transactions at the time we receive them.

2. When we receive multiple transactions for you at the same time in batches, it is our policy to post them in the below order. Batch file processing is most commonly used for checks and ACH entries, however we may also receive batch files from other payment systems.

Payment Order – transactions we receive at the same time in batches

Transactions which are posted in batch processing:
1. ACH credits
2. ACH debits – posted by amount from small to large
3. Inclearing checks – posted by amount from small to large
Note that posting by amount from small to large allows for the most items to be paid and helps you minimize fees.

Why This is Important to You: The order in which items are paid is important if there is not enough money in your account to pay all of the items that are presented. Our payment policy may cause your larger, and perhaps more important, items to not be paid first (such as your rent or mortgage payment) but may reduce the amount of overdraft or NSF fees you have to pay if funds are not available to pay all of the items. If an item is presented without sufficient funds in your account to pay it, we may, at our discretion, pay the item (creating an overdraft) or return the item (NSF). The amounts of the overdraft and NSF fees are disclosed in our Fee Schedule. We encourage you to make careful records and practice good account management. This will help you to avoid writing checks or drafts without sufficient funds and incurring the resulting fees. Third Parties: You further understand and agree that we have no control over how the third parties (or entities who process transactions for them) you elect to do business with "code" transactions. For instance, these third parties have full control over the amounts of transactions they may enter per your relationship with them; and they may code transactions as recurring or non-recurring which may affect the payment order of transactions and the application of any Overdraft Protection or Overdraft Privilege services you have with us. You authorize us to accept transactions based upon the coding submitted by third parties; and that we may rely upon such coding in processing all transactions and services for you. Multiple Presentments: The Credit Union may return debits (ACH payments as well as other transactions) submitted for payment against your accounts if the amount of the debit exceeds the funds available in the applicable account. When we return a debit for insufficient funds, we will assess an NSF fee in the amount shown on our current Fee Schedule at presentment of the returned debit item. The entity that submitted the debit may submit another debit to the Credit Union even if we have already returned the prior debit for insufficient funds in the account. If the resubmitted debit again exceeds the funds available in the account, the Credit Union will again return the debit however will not assess an additional NSF fee if we can reasonably identify the returned item as a subsequent return. The reason for this is that when you authorize the merchant to process a payment from your account that merchant may present the transaction multiple times and in various ways when payment is declined for insufficient funds or otherwise.

- b. Restrictions on Withdrawals from All Accounts / Transactions: In accordance with applicable law, we reserve the right to require you to provide written notice of any intended withdrawals from any account(s) of not less than seven (7) but not more than sixty (60) days before the intended date of withdrawal. If there are sufficient funds to cover some but not all of your withdrawal orders, we may permit those for which there are sufficient funds in any order we choose. We may refuse to allow any transaction, and will advise when required by applicable law if; for example: (1) there is a dispute between account owners; (2) a legal garnishment, attachment or levy is served on us; (3) the account(s) secures any obligation owed to us; (4) any required documentation has not been provided to us; or (5) you are delinquent or fail to pay a loan or any other obligation owed to us when due. If we freeze any account - we will only be obligated to remove the freeze upon receipt of either an agreement signed by all interested person or a legal document, which meets our requirements. In addition to the foregoing if any person should instruct the Credit Union to make a large cash withdrawal (the definition of which is set forth in the Rate and Fee Schedule and may change any time without prior notice) in lieu of other methods of transferring funds offered by the Credit, the Member hereby releases the Credit Union from any and all liability, claims and demands whatsoever which arise from or in any way relate to the Member's possession of any large sums of cash from the moment possession of same is made available to the Member; and Member will execute and deliver any further releases the Credit Union may require in connection with any such withdrawal. For reasons that include your safety and that of the Credit Union, large amounts of cash are not maintained at any Credit Union facility. Therefore, daily cash withdrawals are limited to the funds on hand and may be restricted to ensure operations are sustainable. Large requests can be handled by either you giving us a five (5) business day notice or by other means such as issuance of a cashier's check or wire transfer.

- c. Closing Accounts: When either you or the Credit Union close any accounts, certain funds may not be immediately made available to you upon closing. This is due to actions you have taken or your relationships with third parties that may result in certain holds that affect your available funds versus your actual funds. Please read this entire section for a complete explanation of these matters. These holds are generally resolved within a period of 10 business days. Once all these matters are cleared so that your accounts are no longer responsible for any sums these other parties may claim, then any remaining funds shall become available funds and will be paid to you.
- d. Transaction Limitations for All Share Savings and Money Market Accounts: Historically, Federal Regulation D limited certain transactions on non-transaction accounts such as share savings accounts, money market accounts, and term share certificate accounts. Under that regulation, you could not make more than six withdrawals or transfers during your monthly statement period (at CPM that corresponds to the calendar month) to another Credit Union account of yours or to a third party by means of a preauthorized, automatic, telephonic, home banking, or audio response transfer or instruction. A preauthorized transfer includes any arrangement with us to pay a third party from your account upon oral or written orders, including orders received through ACH. In 2020, financial institutions were given the flexibility to keep, raise, or lift those transaction limitations as they saw fit. You should assume the limit of six withdrawals or transfers per calendar month remains until we disclose any changes. You should only rely on the limits we disclose, and you should not presume that a change to limits in one product, system, or channel applies to all products, systems, and channels, unless we disclose it applies to all. If you exceed our disclosed transfer limitations in any calendar month, we may charge a fee if disclosed in our Fee Schedule, or reverse or refuse to make the transfer. If payment is made directly to the depositor, you may make an unlimited number of withdrawals from these accounts in person, by mail, at an ATM, or by telephone if the withdrawal is mailed to you in a check. There is also no limit on the number of transfers you may make to any loan account(s) with us.
- e. Term Share Certificates: Any term share certificate, certificate or share certificate accounts offered by the Credit Union are subject to the terms of this Agreement, the Schedule, and any account receipt or certificate, which are incorporated herein by reference.
- f. Checking Accounts: The Credit Union may refuse any check or other item drawn against your account or used to withdraw funds from your account if it is not on a form approved by us. We also reserve the right to refuse any check or other item drawn against your account or used to withdraw funds from your account if made in a manner not specifically authorized for your account, if made more frequently or in a greater number than specifically permitted for your account, or if made in an amount less than the minimum withdrawal or transfer specifically permitted for your account. If we accept a check or other item not on a form approved by us, you will be responsible for any loss by us in handling the item. We may pay checks or other items drawn upon your account as set forth in 10.a, even if paying a particular check or item results in an insufficient balance in your account to pay one or more other items that otherwise could have been paid out of your account. Because of the nature of the Credit Union check program, neither the Credit Union nor any other processing entities shall be responsible for the authenticity of the checks with regard to the signature or alterations; and checks, when presented, shall be paid without verification. We may disregard all information on or any writing or memorandum attached to any check or item except for your signature, the amount and the information that is magnetically encoded. You agree that we do not fail to use ordinary care because our procedures do not provide for sight examination. You will notify us immediately if you learn or have reason to know that any of your checks have been lost or stolen. If you are negligent in safeguarding your checks or if there is a processing problem due to your use of a check printer we do not approve, we will not have any liability or responsibility for any losses you incur as a result if we act in good faith pursuant to standard commercial practices.

- g. Check 21: Check processing is getting faster as financial institutions begin to process checks “electronically.” We are required by law to provide the notice in the following section (“Substitute Checks And Your Rights”), which explains the differences between your original check (which might not be returned) and a substitute check, and your rights in the event the substitute check causes a loss that would have been avoided if the original check was still available.

Substitute Checks and Your Rights: What is a substitute check? To make check processing faster, federal law permits financial institutions to replace original checks with “substitute checks”. These checks are similar in size to original checks with a slightly reduced image of the front and back of the original check. The front of the substitute check states: “This is a legal copy of your check. You can use it the same way you would use the original check.” You may use the substitute check as proof of payment just like the original check. Some or all of the checks that are returned to you from us may be substitute checks. This notice describes your rights you have when you receive substitute checks from us. The rights in this notice do not apply to original checks, photocopies of original checks, or to electronic debits to your account. However, you have rights under other laws with respect to those transactions.

What are my rights regarding substitute checks? In certain cases, federal law provides a special procedure that allows you to request a refund for losses you suffer if a substitute check is posted to your account (for example, if you think that we withdrew the wrong amount from your account or that we withdrew money from your account more than once for the same check). The losses you may attempt to recover under this procedure may include the amount that was withdrawn from your account and fees that were charged as a result of the withdrawal (for example, overdraft fees).

The amount of your refund under this procedure is limited to the amount of your loss or the amount of the substitute check, whichever is less. You are also entitled to interest on the amount of your refund if your account is an interest-bearing account. If your loss exceeds the amount of the substitute check, you may be able to recover additional amounts under other law.

If you use this procedure, you may receive up to $2,500.00 of your refund (plus interest, if your account earns interest) within ten business days after we received your claim and the remainder of your refund (plus interest, if your account earns interest) not later than 45 calendar days after we received your claim.

We may reverse the refund (including any interest on the refund) if we later are able to demonstrate that the substitute check was correctly posted to your account.

How do I make a claim for a refund? If you believe that you have suffered a loss relating to a substitute check that you received and that was posted to your account, please call us or write us using the information in our Contact Us Sheet or the Contact Us information we provide online. You must contact us within 40 calendar days of the date that we mailed (or otherwise delivered by a means to which you agreed) the substitute check in question or the account statement showing that the substitute check was posted to your account, whichever is later. We will extend this time period if you were not able to make a timely claim because of extraordinary circumstances. Your claim must include:

1. a description of why you have suffered a loss (for example, you think the amount withdrawn was incorrect);
2. an estimate of the amount of your loss;
3. an explanation of why the substitute check you received is insufficient to confirm that you

- suffered a loss; and
4. a copy of the substitute check or identifying information such as the check number and the name of the person to whom you wrote the check.
- h. Checks you Request from the Credit Union: If you request any check be issued by the Credit Union pursuant to any means we make available, then all such checks are payable to the first named owner of the account, record owner, trustee, custodian, or as otherwise indicated on your account card with us and will be mailed to the address of record.
  - i. Temporary Holds and Authorizations for Amounts in Excess of Transactions: To facilitate certain transactions you make we may place temporary holds on funds in your accounts. The Credit Union can neither control the parties with whom you do business nor regulate the processing of transactions through the commercial networks used to facilitate your transactions. Therefore, it is your obligation to ensure that sufficient funds are on deposit at all times to cover the transactions you make – including the amount that may be subject to these holds. Pursuant to the processing networks rules a merchant (hotel, car rental company, retailer, etc.) may obtain authorization for up to 3 times the total estimated amount of your actual hotel stay, car rental or purchase. This is deemed to be an "authorized amount" by you and the authorized amount will not be available via your account until after your bill is finally settled with such merchant(s), which can cause an insufficient funds situation in your account(s). Even if your bill is satisfied with another form of payment, the merchant/retailer may continue to hold the funds as originally authorized by you for these time periods. You choose the merchants you do business with and if the car rental companies, hotels, and other merchants you choose do not disclose their authorization policies or have unfavorable policies, you may want to consider not using your CPM Visa Debit Card with them.

International ACH Transactions. You acknowledge that in the event an International ACH Transaction ("IAT") Entry that is transmitted to or from any of your Accounts is identified and designated by the Credit Union's screening criteria for review and examination under the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) Rules and Regulations ("OFAC Rules"), then the settlement of such an IAT Entry may be delayed or suspended pending our review of the IAT Entry, and may be terminated under applicable OFAC Rules. You also acknowledge that we may be required to place an indefinite hold on the funds covered by the IAT Entry if the IAT Entry is required to be terminated under the OFAC Rules. You agree that any delay described in the forgoing provisions of this paragraph is a permissible delay under the terms of laws and regulations applicable to the availability of funds held in deposit accounts. In the event an IAT Entry is delayed or terminated, we will provide accountholder such notice as may be required by the NACHA Rules, OFAC Rules, or other applicable laws and regulations.

Right to Reject, Delay or Suspend: We will not be obligated to honor, in whole or in part, (or may delay or suspend) any transaction or instruction which:

- Is not in accordance with any term or condition applicable to the relevant account;
- We reasonably believe may have been requested or issued without proper authority;
- Involves funds subject to a hold, dispute, restriction or legal process which we believe prevents withdrawal;
- We reasonably believe might violate the laws or regulations of the United States or any State, including without limitation, OFAC regulations;
- Would violate any applicable provision of any risk control program of the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) or applicable rule or regulation of any other federal or state regulatory authority;
- Is not in accordance with any other requirement of our applicable policies, procedures or practices; or,
- We reasonably decline to honor for your or our protection.

You agree that any such action allowed above is a permissible under the terms of this Agreement and all laws and regulations applicable to the availability of funds held in deposit accounts and otherwise.

- j. Copies of Documents: We do not typically keep the original paper documents (like deposit slips) associated with your account for a long time. We make copies of most of the documents that end up with us and destroy the paper originals. Electronic images are one type of media that is used, but as technology changes, there are and will be other copying techniques. You agree that such copies will be sufficient for all purposes. See the section titled "Check 21" above. To facilitate check imaging and electronic check collection, it is important that you take care with the transactions you create on paper. When completing a check, you must: (1) write clearly; (2) use black or dark blue ink in the date, pay to, amount, and signature fields; (3) use only the space provided for your part of a transaction. (See the section "Endorsements" herein and in your Mobile or Remote Deposit Capture Agreements.) You agree to reimburse us for any losses and costs we incur as a result of a poor check image caused by a deficiency in the written check, whether due to your failure to follow these guidelines or otherwise. You also agree to reimburse us for any losses and costs we incur as a result of a poor check image caused by a deficiency in the written check that you accepted and deposited as the payee. Certain fees as set forth in the Fee Schedule may also apply.
11. Collection Items: We may accept certain items on a collection basis only. We route and process collection items separately from your other deposits. We will only credit your account for collection items only after we receive payment for them. We may also receive items from other financial institutions on a collection only basis. Upon presentment of a collection item we will follow the presenting institution's instructions and pay the item if funds are available in your account or otherwise pursuant to your agreements with us. The financial institution on which the collection item is drawn may also charge you fees. If the other financial institution requires payment of a fee before that institution will process the collection item, we may pay the fee and charge your account. Fees may apply even if the collection item is returned unpaid.
12. Account Rates and Fees: Fees applicable to all accounts and account services are set forth in the Fee Schedule. We may transfer from any of your account(s) any charges or costs in connection with the operation and maintenance of account(s) as stated in this Agreement or the Fee Schedule. You agree that we may change the Fee Schedule at any time upon proper notice as required by law.
13. Authorized Signature: We will not be liable for refusing any order or item if we believe in good faith that the signature on any order or item is not genuine. We are authorized to honor any transactions initiated by a third person if you provide your access device or other information to a third person. Also, you agree that if you authorize the use of stamp/facsimile signature, electronic signature, access device or biometric; we shall not be liable for honoring any transaction or instrument that appears to bear your stamp/facsimile or electronic signature, even if made by an unauthorized person. You are solely responsible to ensure that you maintain the security and possession of any stamp or other facsimile signature.
14. Account Access

Authorized User(s). All withdrawals, transfers and transactions made by any person to whom you have at any time provided authority or the means to access your accounts or other services shall be deemed authorized by you, and the Credit Union will not have any responsibility or liability whatsoever for such withdrawals, transfers or other transactions.

Access to Account Information. You agree that all owners, borrowers, and authorized users, may have access to all of the information you provide to us, or which we gather and maintain regarding our relationships with you; and that they may provide authority to others. This includes, but is not limited to information regarding transactions, account history, your loan relationships with us, and other information relating to or arising with regard to any of your accounts, loans or other services with us. Further, you understand that we utilize a consolidated statement for your accounts, account services, loans and all other services with us. You understand and agree that we are authorized to send jointly and/or provide to any individual owner or borrower a statement that includes all of the information on the consolidated statement even though all parties receiving the statement may not be owners or borrowers as to all of the accounts or services addressed in the statement.

Sharing Information with Other Persons, Co-Borrowers, Co-Signers/Guarantors, Owners of Collateral Pledged and Others. You hereby consent and agree that we may share any information regarding your obligations with us or collateral pledged to secure any obligations you owe to the Credit Union with the persons listed in this subsection if we receive a request which we in good faith believe to be related to any such obligations, refinancings, sales, trades, transfers, exchange or transactions. Also, you consent and agree that we may provide pay-off or payment information to persons or entities who seek to make payments on your behalf, including potential "pay-offs". This may include account numbers and information necessary to process payments.

Access to Third Parties. When you give another party access to your accounts or account information you understand and agree that we have no liability or obligation for any errors, claims or losses of any type of nature whatsoever relating to any transactions initiated as a result of your relationship with that third party, including any claims or losses that may arise from any access to your accounts or personal information.

Third Parties. To expedite the matters herein for your benefit, you agree that we can rely on the representations made to us by a third party, and our duties to you hereunder do not require us to investigate or document a request for such information.

15. Powers of Attorney: You agree that regardless of any laws, rules or regulations we may in our sole discretion refuse to honor or accept a power of attorney to open, close, deposit, or make transactions on any account or to supply endorsements on checks or any other items or to take any other action with respect to an account, loan or other service. The Credit Union may allow a third person acting as your attorney-in-fact to make transactions regarding your account(s) or conduct other business on your behalf without any liability to you, pursuant to a Power of Attorney, but have no obligation to do so. You agree that we have no obligation to verify the scope, authenticity, and validity of any Power of Attorney presented to us. If we accept the Power of Attorney, the Credit Union has no duty to inquire as to the use or purpose of any transaction(s) by your attorney-in-fact, and may restrict or refuse account access, withdrawals, and transactions.

You further agree we may require that a Power of Attorney be registered with the appropriate recording authorities. We may restrict the types or amounts of transactions we permit an attorney-in-fact to conduct. We may require a separate form for each account or service for which you want to grant power of attorney. If your agent or attorney-in-fact does not present the original form, we may either accept or refuse to honor any power of attorney you grant, and we shall have no liability to you. If we accept a power of attorney, we may continue to recognize the authority of your agent or attorney-in-fact until we receive written notice of revocation from you and have had a reasonable time to act on it.

We within our discretion may not recognize a power of attorney given by one owner of a Joint Account without the consent of the other Joint Account holder(s).

You agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless for accepting and/or honoring any power of attorney, or copy thereof, which we accept in good faith and believe to be valid and authorized by you.

16. Understanding Overdrafts and Non-Sufficient Funds (NSF)

The information in this section is being provided to help you understand what happens if your account is overdrawn. Understanding the concepts of overdrafts and non-sufficient funds (NSF) is important and can help you avoid fees or charges being assessed. This section also provides contractual terms relating to overdrafts and NSF transactions. An overdraft will typically result in you being charged an overdraft or an NSF fee. Generally, an overdraft occurs when there is not enough money in your account to pay a transaction, but we pay (or cover) the transaction anyway. An NSF transaction is slightly different. In an NSF transaction, we do not pay the transaction. Instead, the transaction is rejected and the item or requested payment is returned unpaid. In either situation, we can charge you a fee.

Overdrafts: An overdraft occurs when you make or authorize any transaction that exceeds the available balance in your account with us or if we impose a fee that exceeds the balance in your account(s). This will apply whether your transaction is by check or electronically. You understand that we may, at our discretion, honor withdrawal requests that overdraw your account. However, the fact that we may honor transaction requests that overdraw the account balance does not obligate us to do so later. You can NOT rely on us to pay overdrafts on your account regardless of how frequently or under what circumstances we have paid overdrafts on your account in the past. We can change our practice of paying, or not paying, overdrafts at our discretion without notice to you. If we decide not to pay an overdraft, the transaction shall result in an insufficient funds transaction (an NSF). If you cause an Overdraft you agree to promptly pay us the full amount of the Overdraft and all applicable fees. The Credit Union has no obligation to notify you of any Overdraft, any NSF, or charge that creates a negative funds balance in your account(s). You agree that the Credit Union may also in its sole discretion utilize any funds in any of your accounts to pay any Overdrafts as defined herein or to pay any other debts that you owe as a result of any authorized acts. Funds may be applied from any account in which you have a beneficial interest; and may include funds regardless of the source including but not limited to deposits of funds representing the payment of Social Security, Veterans benefits, or any other funds that may be subject to limitations under federal or state laws. Any application of funds hereunder shall be deemed a voluntary transfer that you have authorized. Further, you agree all terms apply whether the Overdraft is caused by you or by the actions of any owner or authorized user.

What is your responsibility if your account has an overdraft? If you have an overdraft on your account (including transactions we have paid on your behalf into overdraft, plus any fees), you must promptly make a deposit or transfer to return your account to a positive balance. If you fail to bring your checking account to a positive balance, we will close your account. Also, we may report you to consumer reporting agencies and initiate collection efforts. You agree to reimburse us for the costs and expenses (including attorney's fees and expenses) we incur. The Credit Union may close your account due to excessive overdrafts, as determined in the Credit Union's sole discretion.

17. Avoiding Overdrafts – Monitoring Your Account: You should monitor your account balance and ensure you have sufficient available funds at all times. In addition to providing you an account statement we offer several free services to help you monitor both the Current Balance and Available Balance of your account.
- a. CPM Anytime Online Banking and CPM Mobile Banking
  - b. Free Account Alerts
  - c. Free Debit Card Alerts
  - d. CPM Text Banking
  - e. Automated Phone Banking

If you need assistance in understanding the above options or need help with enrollment, please contact us.

18. Avoiding Overdrafts - Overdraft Protection Transfer: We offer two types of optional services allowing you to cover your items by arranging automatic transfers of your own funds. Each provides an easy and automatic way to ensure your checks and other checking account transactions are paid in the event of a shortfall or oversight. When you establish an overdraft protection transfer service, you authorize us to automatically move the funds needed to cover your overdraft items from the other eligible CPM account(s) you specify. This service requires you have a sufficient available balance of funds to transfer. We offer two forms of this service:
- a. Overdraft Protection Transfer from a CPM Account

If you have other transaction accounts with CPM, you can authorize us to set up an automatic transfer to move the funds needed to cover your overdraft as long as there are sufficient available funds to transfer. When an overdraft protection transfer occurs from a linked account to cover a transaction, the available balance in that account will be reduced by the amount of money transferred. That amount of money will be unavailable for other use. You may specify more than one account to back up your checking account, and you can specify the hierarchy of which account we should look to first to fund the transfer. Each individual overdraft item covered triggers a separate transfer, and each transfer is free. If the first transfer account does not have sufficient balances to cover the overdraft, the balance in that transfer account will be transferred and remaining amount needed to pay the NSF transaction will be transferred from the next transfer account(s) you have designated. You understand that the use of your checking account and transfer account is subject to this Membership Account Agreement and Disclosures and other account service charges may apply. You may establish, cancel, or change this service using CPM Anytime Online Banking and Mobile Banking, or by calling us using the information provided on our Contact Us Sheet or the Contact Us information we provide online, or by visiting one of our branches. There are no fees for this service.
  - b. Overdraft Protection from a CPM Line of Credit

In addition to designating other CPM transaction accounts to cover your NSF transactions (see item a above), you may also designate a CPM line of credit to cover your NSF transactions. If you do not have an existing CPM line of credit, you may apply, and approval is based on your credit worthiness. When you establish overdraft protection transfer service, you let us know the hierarchy of accounts you want us to access. To avoid interest charges, you can instruct us to first rely on your other CPM transaction accounts and to use your CPM line of credit as your option of last resort.

- Transfers from your line of credit shall be in the exact amount needed to cover the NSF transaction. No transfer will be made from your line of credit:
  - o which will cause your outstanding line of credit balance to exceed the approved credit limit.
  - o if your line of credit is not current or is otherwise considered to be in default by us.
- Any transfer from your line of credit will constitute an authorized advance under your line of credit and is subject to interest charges and the terms and conditions of the line of credit agreement. Unless stated otherwise in your line of credit agreement, there is no transfer fee for this transfer service.

19. Dealing with Overdrafts – Overdraft Privilege Services: We offer two levels of Overdraft Privilege Service to provide overdraft protection for your checking account. Essentials checking and Money Market accounts are not eligible. We limit the service to maximum of one checking account per member. With Overdraft Privilege Service, we generally pay your overdraft items when paying them would not cause your available balance to go more than $500.00 into the negative. These services may be used to cover your eligible items when your available balance is insufficient. You should use your checking account responsibly and not intentionally overdraw your account; however, we realize that financial shortfalls happen. Overdraft Privilege Services are not a loan and are not subject to interest charges or late fees however items paid are subject to fees as provided for in our Fee Schedule. If you are considering this service, please first review our Overdraft Privilege Disclosure which details how items are paid and how fees are assessed. Payment of your overdraft items is at our discretion, and we reserve the right not to pay an overdraft. For example, we typically do not pay overdrafts if your account is not in good standing, if you are not making regular deposits, or if you use the service irresponsibly. You will be charged a maximum of 4 fees per day, and transactions of $5.00 or less will not incur a fee. Credit Union may change the terms of this program or revoke the privilege at any time without notice.

a. Standard Overdraft Privilege

To obtain Standard Overdraft Privilege you must opt in for this service when completing our Election Agreement for Overdraft Protection. Should you opt in for this service, we will not grant the privilege immediately. We may, but are not required to, grant this privilege to you as soon as 60 days after your election, and we may grant it without further communication with you. Once we grant the service, at our discretion, we will authorize and pay overdrafts on your checking account for transactions such as your checks, one-time and reoccurring ACH transactions, online banking and telephone transfers, Zelle® money transfers, and bill payments submitted by ACH or by check.

b. Overdraft Privilege Plus

This optional additional privilege may be added to your checking account at any time. Overdraft Privilege Plus can be used to authorize and pay overdrafts for specific transactions made using your checking account to include ATM and one-time and reoccurring debit card transactions. If you only want to protect your account and cover checks, one-time and reoccurring ACH transactions, online banking and telephone transfers, Zelle @ money transfers, and bill payments submitted by ACH or by check you only need Standard Overdraft Privilege. To obtain Overdraft Privilege Plus you must complete our Election Agreement for Overdraft Protection. If this service is not added and there is not enough money in your checking account or accounts linked for Overdraft Protection, your ATM and everyday (one-time) debit card transactions will be declined, and there are no fees for declined transactions. If the service is not added and your ATM or everyday (one-time) debit card transaction creates a negative balance during posting, there will not be an overdraft fee.

Opting Out of Overdraft Privilege Services

You may opt to have just Standard Overdraft Privilege, just Overdraft Privilege Plus, both services, or no Overdraft Privilege Services.

To opt out of Standard Overdraft Privilege service complete the Election Agreement for Overdraft Protection form to remove this benefit from your account. You would only have this service if you previously opted-in, but if you previously opted in you may change your mind later and opt out. There is no fee to opt in or opt out. If you opt out you are instructing us to return any ATM and debit card transaction overdraft items unpaid. CPM will charge the returned item fee specified in our Fee Schedule for checks and ACH transactions which are returned. If an item is presented and returned more than once, CPM will only charge the returned item fee if we can reasonably identify the returned item as a subsequent return. There are no fees for declined ATM and debit card transactions.

If you have CPM Anytime Online Banking, you can login to access Accounts and Maintenance/Overdraft Privilege to manage your elections.

Members who receive Social Security, federal direct deposit, or any other entitlement benefit must opt out of Standard Overdraft Privilege and not opt in to Overdraft Privilege Plus if they do not want the Credit Union to apply those funds to pay an overdraft.

With Overdraft Privilege Services, we will generally pay your overdraft items when paying them would not cause your available balance to go more than $500.00 into the negative. However, payment of your overdraft items is at our discretion, and we reserve the right not to pay. For example, we typically do not pay overdrafts if your account is not in good standing, if you are not making regular deposits, or if you use the service irresponsibly. Each item paid through this service is subject to a fee as detailed in our Fee Schedule.

Current vs Available Balance

In order to manage and understand how transactions are processed-including when fees such as overdraft fees may apply, you understand and agree to the following:

Your checking account has two kinds of balances: an “current balance”, and an “available balance”. Both balances will change with any given check, debit card, or other transaction as you use your checking account.

We use the available balance to authorize your transactions; we also use the available balance to pay your transactions during our nightly processing. Your “available balance” is the portion of your actual balance that is available for immediate withdrawal or to pay other debit items; it takes into account standard funds availability holds under our Funds Availability Policy, as well as any pending debits and credits we have received but not yet posted to your account (for example, preauthorized debit card transactions, pending checks, transfers, withdrawals, or other holds on your account). It does not take into account any overdraft protection funds available. Items still in process or on hold may be referred to as “pending” on your online banking. The available balance changes throughout the day as transactions occur.

The available balance may not include every transaction you have initiated or that we previously authorized, for example, your available balance may not include the following:

- The final amount of a debit card purchase. For example, we may authorize a purchase amount prior to a tip that you add:
- Debit card transactions that have been previously authorized but not sent to us for payment. In most cases, transaction authorization holds are usually released after three business days even though the transaction may be sent to us for payment from your account at a later date, which we must honor. The authorization hold may be up to 30 business days for certain transactions, including car rental, cash, and international transactions. Merchants choose the system by which they process their transactions and how frequently they do so (often a decision based on the lowest cost to them). The Credit Union has no control over how and when transactions are presented to us to be paid.

Your "actual balance" is the actual amount of money in your account at any given moment in time. It may be referred to on your statement as "current balance" or simply "balance". It reflects items that have been fully processed and actually posted to your account but not transactions that are still processing or "pending". These are transactions that have "cleared" your account. The Actual Balance may not always depict an accurate display of what you may spend without overdrawing your account.

Transaction Processing Examples

The following examples illustrate how this works. Your account reflects an Actual Balance of $75 and an Available Balance of $75. You swipe your debit card at the grocery store; an authorization for your purchase is given for $25. The $25 transaction is now on hold. Since we are obligated to pay the merchant, even if your checking account is negative at the time the transaction is presented to us by the merchant, we will reduce your available balance by the amount of the authorization which is $25. Your Actual Balance would still be $75 because this transaction has not yet posted, but your Available Balance would be $50 because you have authorized a $25 payment to the grocer. When the merchant submits the request for payment, your Actual Balance will be reduced by the amount of the posted transaction and both your current and available balance will be $50, provided additional charges have not been made. If you exceed the Available Balance (even though the Actual Balance may be greater), you may overdraw your account since transactions ARE posted against the Available Balance. This may result in Insufficient Funds transactions; Overdraft Privilege fees; Insufficient Funds Fees (NSF); as a result of exceeding your Available Balance. To determine the Available Balance, you may verify your list of outstanding transactions against CPM Anytime Online Banking or CPM Mobile Banking. It is important to understand the order in which your transactions are paid as explained in Transactions from Your Account(s) to avoid making transactions that exceed your Available Balance.

We use your Available Balance to determine when your account is overdrawn prior to assessing nonsufficient fees or Overdraft Privilege fees, if you are participating in the Overdraft Privilege Program. The following is an example: Your actual balance is $100, and your available balance is also $100. You make a purchase with your debit card at a merchant who submits an authorization of $35. When we approve the authorization, we commit to pay the merchant and reduce your available balance to $65. As the merchant has not settled yet your actual balance remains at $100. Next you request an $80 withdrawal at an ATM. You do not have sufficient available funds for the ATM transaction and if we honor your request using Overdraft Privilege, we will assess a fee. The fee is based on your having only $65 available and is not based on your actual balance of $100.

Next the merchant promptly submits the settlement transaction for the $35.00. Because the $35.00 transaction was authorized against good funds, and it settles before the preauthorization hold has expired, you will not be assessed a fee when we post the $35.00 settlement. In this example you will be assessed one fee.

In this same scenario, if the merchant fails to settle promptly, and it settles after the preauthorization hold has expired, you would be assessed a fee for the $35.00 transaction. In this example you will be assessed two fees.

In addition, your Available Balance may not reflect all of your pending debit card or ATM card transactions. For example, if a merchant obtains an authorization but does not submit the debit card transaction for payment within two (2) business days after the authorization is given, we may increase your Available Balance by the amount of that authorization. This means your Available Balance will no longer reflect the pending transaction until the transaction has been received by us and posted to your account.

At our discretion, we may increase your Available Balance when a merchant does not submit a transaction for payment on a timely basis. In any event, the obligation to the merchant still applies.

NOTE: Holds placed on your account balance for pending debit card/electronic transactions, including gasoline, hotels, car rentals, etc., may reduce your available balance for an amount that may vary from the actual purchase amount, which may or may not be presented for payment. These same holds also reduce the available funds for subsequent purchases. Failing to account for outstanding items may cause your account to become overdrawn and fees assessed. Why is this Important to You? The order in which items are paid is important if there are not enough available funds in your account to pay all of the items presented for payment. When processing items drawn on your account, our policy is to pay them as we receive them. We commonly receive items to be processed against your account(s) multiple times per day in what is referred to as presentment files. Each presentment file received commonly contains a large amount of a specific type of item (Check, ACH, or ATM/POS). It is common for each of these presentment files to contain multiple items to be processed against your account. In this case, when multiple items are received at once, the items will be paid as follows: checks are paid in order of check amount, lowest to highest; ACH items in each presentment file post credits first, then debits paid by dollar amount, lowest to highest, and generally we will receive up to four ACH presentment files per day; ATM/POS items are paid in the order they are presented. Items performed in person such as withdrawals or checks cashed at one of our locations or a shared branch, are generally paid at the time they are performed.

YOU MAY STILL OVERDRAW YOUR ACCOUNT EVEN THOUGH THE AVAILABLE BALANCE APPEARS TO SHOW THERE ARE SUFFICIENT FUNDS TO COVER A TRANSACTION YOU WANT TO MAKE. If an item is presented without sufficient available funds in your account to pay it, we may, at our discretion, pay the item (creating an overdraft) or return the item (NSF). The Credit Union does not have to notify you prior to paying an item, regardless of the availability of funds. We encourage you to keep careful records of all transactions (debits & credits) and practice good account management. This will help you avoid writing checks or share drafts without sufficient available funds and incurring overdraft fees. For more examples, and to learn about other options for overdraft protection and ways to minimize overdraft fees, please refer to our Overdraft Privilege Disclosure.

20. Postdated and Stale Dated Drafts: We may pay any draft without regard to its date unless you notify us in writing of a postdating pursuant to applicable laws and our requirements. We are not responsible if you give us an incorrect or incomplete description, or untimely notice. You agree not to deposit checks, drafts, or other items before they are properly payable. We are not obligated to pay any check or draft drawn on your account, which is presented more than six (6) months past its date; however, we have no obligation or liability to you or any other party to the instrument or in the chain of the collection process if we do so.
21. Stop Payment Orders: If you don't want us to pay a specific written instrument such as a personal check, you can ask us to place a "Stop Payment Order" ("SPO") on the instrument. You can notify us by mail, telephone, electronically, or in person. Any such instruction must be given to a teller, member service representative or branch manager of the Credit Union. Your SPO will take effect when we record it on your account. A SPO will not be valid and binding on us unless your SPO includes your account number, the number and date of the written instrument, the name(s) of the payee(s), and the exact amount of the instrument. Only the person placing the SPO may release the SPO. We will charge you a service charge for any SPO as set forth in the Fee Schedule. If you give an oral SPO that is not confirmed in writing by you or us within fourteen (14) days, your SPO will expire and the instrument may thereafter be paid by us.

If you provide written confirmation, your SPO will be effective for a period of six (6) months. Alternately, the Credit Union, in its sole discretion, may confirm any oral SPO in writing by sending a notice to the address shown in our records, but has no obligation to do so. Such written confirmation by us will also be effective for a period of six (6) months. To extend the SPO for an additional six (6) months, you must submit a new request and pay any applicable fees.

The Credit Union will not be responsible for any loss as a result of honoring a check: (1) more than fourteen (14) days after receipt of your oral order to stop payment (2) more than six (6) months after your written order to stop payment, our written confirmation, or more than six (6) months after a written extension as provided herein; (3) through inadvertence, oversight or accident, we honor any postdated check; (4) if you fail to provide us with complete or accurate information; (5) or fail to meet your obligations as noted in this section or otherwise in this Agreement. We have no obligation to accept any order to stop payment on any certified check, cashier's check, teller's check or other instrument guaranteed by us. You will be responsible to the Credit Union if any claim or demand is made against us as a result of our acting in accordance with your stop payment order.

The Credit Union may require you to establish the fact and amount of loss resulting from the payment of an item contrary to your SPO.

Insufficient Funds and Cashier's Checks: You agree that any stop payment order received when you do not have sufficient funds on deposit in your account to cover the item on which you are requesting us to stop payment shall be subject to a service charge for return of an NSF item rather than the service charge for a stop payment order. Cashier's Checks: If you seek to return any cashier's check or like item after it is issued to you or another, then you agree we may treat such items as "lost, stolen or destroyed" under the Uniform Commercial Code and reimbursement may not be made for 91- days from the date issued.

22. Legal Process and Other Adverse Claims: Should we receive any legal process, or other adverse claim which in the Credit Union's opinion affects your account(s) , we may, at our option and without liability: (1) refuse to honor orders to pay or withdraw sums from the account(s); and/or (2) hold the balance in the subject account(s) until the Process or adverse claim is disposed of to the Credit Union's satisfaction; (3) pay the balance over to the source of the Process; (4) and/or comply with any specifically applicable laws in addressing the Process. Any Process or adverse claim is subordinate to our lien and security interest in all funds in your account(s). We may also charge you a fee for such matters as set forth in the Fee Schedule.
23. Statements: If the Credit Union provides a periodic statement for your account(s), you will receive a periodic statement from us or notice of the availability of your statement describing all activity on your account(s) during the statement period as required by law. If you have a multiple party account we are only required to provide one periodic statement to any of the account owners identified on the Membership Application or Account Change Form. If provided electronically, statements will be (1) e-mailed to you as an attachment; or (2) you will be sent a notice via e-mail that will direct you to a site where you may access your statement as otherwise agreed. E-mails from us will be sent to the e-mail address provided by any owner. Statements will be provided to the fiduciary upon any trust, custodial or other fiduciary or representative account; and the requirements of this paragraph will be binding on all parties of interest with regard to such accounts pursuant to such delivery. Contact us if you do not receive your regular statement. If you do not receive or have any problem accessing a periodic statement, you agree to notify us in writing within fourteen (14) days of the date that the statement is usually sent or made available by us. If you do not so notify us, you will be deemed to have received the statement for all purposes.

A. YOUR DUTY TO EXAMINE AND REPORT PROBLEMS: AS USED IN THIS SECTION, THE TERM "PROBLEM" MEANS ANY ERROR, ALTERATION, COUNTERFEIT CHECK, OR UNAUTHORIZED TRANSACTION (INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, FORGED OR MISSING SIGNATURES AND EXCLUDING CONSUMER ELECTRONIC BANKING TRANSACTIONS) RELATED TO YOUR ACCOUNT. BECAUSE YOU ARE IN THE BEST POSITION TO DISCOVER ANY PROBLEM, YOU AGREE THAT IT IS YOUR DUTY TO PROMPTLY EXAMINE YOUR STATEMENT AND REPORT TO US ANY PROBLEM ON OR RELATED TO YOUR STATEMENT. YOU AGREE THAT WE WILL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY PROBLEM THAT: (1) YOU DO NOT REPORT TO US IN WRITING WITHIN A REASONABLE TIME NOT TO EXCEED 30 CALENDAR DAYS AFTER WE MAIL THE STATEMENT (OR MAKE THE STATEMENT AVAILABLE) TO YOU; (2) RESULTS FROM A FORGERY, COUNTERFEIT OR ALTERATION SO CLEVER THAT A REASONABLE PERSON CANNOT DETECT IT (FOR EXAMPLE, UNAUTHORIZED CHECKS MADE WITH YOUR FACSIMILE OR OTHER MECHANICAL SIGNATURE DEVICE OR THAT LOOK TO AN AVERAGE PERSON AS IF THEY CONTAIN AN AUTHORIZED SIGNATURE); OR (3) AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED BY LAW OR REGULATION. YOU AGREE THAT THIS 30-DAY PERIOD TO EXAMINE YOUR STATEMENT AND REPORT PROBLEMS TO US ARE WITHOUT REGARD TO OUR LEVEL OF CARE OR THE COMMERCIAL REASONABLENESS OF OUR PRACTICES, AND WITHOUT REGARD TO WHETHER CANCELLED CHECKS ARE SUPPLIED TO YOU.

You agree to waive any rights to recovery you may have against us if you do not provide notice to us in the manner and within the time required by this Agreement. You may not start legal action against us because of any problem unless: (a) you have given us the above notice and (b) the legal action begins within one year after we send or make your statement available to you. If you make a claim against us in connection with a problem, we reserve the right to conduct a reasonable investigation before re-crediting your account and you agree to fully cooperate in such investigation. Within 30 days of the date of mailing, you agree to complete and return an affidavit of forgery on the form we provide along with any other information we may request. You further agree to file a police report if we request. If you refuse to sign such an affidavit or fail to return the affidavit and other requested documentation within 30 days of the date we mail it to you, you agree that we may consider the matter resolved and reverse any provisional credit provided. At our sole discretion, we may, but are not obligated to, provisionally credit your account during the investigation for all or a portion of the amount claimed. Any provisional credit to your account may be reversed if you fail to fully cooperate in our investigation or, if as a result of our investigation, we determine that the charge to your account was proper. You agree to pay any fees assessed or accrued against your account during the investigation or that may arise upon reversal of any provisional credit.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the time period for notifying us or making a claim under the Check 21 Act, with respect to a substitute check or an image of a substitute check that is sent with a statement or that appears on a statement, will be as set forth in the Check 21 Act.

24. Change of Name or Address: You will promptly notify us of any change of address or your name, including your e-mail or other electronic address by writing to us using the information in our Contact Us Sheet or the Contact Us information we provide online. You may also use CPM Anytime Online Banking or CPM Mobile Banking (Settings / Contact) to update your mailing address, email address, and phone numbers. In the absence of such notice, any mail, disclosure or notice to you at any address, forwarding address provided to us by the U.S. Postal Office, or e-mail address shown by our records or any communication received from you will be deemed properly addressed; and unless otherwise provided by applicable law, constitute effective delivery of any item we may be required to provide, regardless of actual receipt by you. If we receive notice that an address you provide to us is not or is no longer correct, or has changed without notice to us, and we attempt to determine your new name or address; then the Credit Union may, in its discretion: (1) charge a fee as set forth in the Fee Schedule to determine your current address; and/or (2) discontinue sending any statements, notices or other items to you until verifiable information is provided to correct any deficiency under this provision.
25. Inactive or Dormant Accounts: If your account falls below any applicable minimum balance or you have not made any Transactions within the period of time specified in the Fee Schedule, we may classify your account(s) as inactive. An account is generally only considered dormant when applicable State law requires such classification (i.e., dormant or abandoned). Although we have no obligation to do so, we reserve the right to not classify a particular account as either inactive or dormant if any owner thereof has other active accounts or services with us. You may be charged fees as set forth in the Fee Schedule for inactivity, which is generally the failure to transact any business on an account for the period set for in the Fee Schedule. Unless specifically prohibited by applicable law, we may also charge a service fee set forth on the Fee Schedule for processing your dormant account ("Abandoned Property / Dormancy Processing Fee"). Unless prohibited by applicable law, we further reserve the right to transfer your dormant account funds to a general Credit Union account and to suspend any further account statements.
26. Termination or Restriction of Account(s) and Service(s) and Standards of Conduct and Behavior: The Credit Union is committed to delivering exceptional products and services to members. To that end our employees are trained to handle interpersonal interactions effectively and to address any service issues with Credit Union members. The Credit Union's policies define the circumstances under which services may be limited for members who engage in "improper or abusive conduct;" and also address other circumstances where membership and/or services may be terminated or limited. The policy is not intended to restrict the rights and freedoms of any particular group or individual, but to protect Credit Union employees and members by addressing unacceptable conduct. You also understand and expressly agree that the Credit Union is a non-profit organization and that the rights addressed in this section are necessary to protect the Credit Union for the benefit of all members.

You may terminate your membership by giving us notice and complying with the policies and procedures of the Credit Union. Termination will not release you from any fees or obligations you owe us, those incurred in the process of closing your accounts or services or your liability on outstanding items or Transactions. You may terminate a single party account at any time by notifying us in writing. We have the right to require the written consent of all parties to a multiple party account for termination. You further agree that we can limit or terminate your membership rights, any account or service including any rewards program for cause based on any of the circumstances defined in this Agreement; without notice or further action. We, in our sole discretion, may terminate, limit or restrict, or change the terms, as we in our sole discretion deem appropriate, any of your account(s) or service(s), including but not limited to loan services, or place a freeze on any sums on deposit with us at any time without notice or require you to close your account(s)/service(s) and apply for a new account(s)/service(s) if: (1) there is a request to change the owners or authorized users; (2) there is a fraud/forgery or unauthorized use committed or reported; (3) there is a dispute as to ownership of any account or sum on deposit; (4) there are any share drafts that are lost or stolen; (5) there are returned unpaid items-Transactions not covered by an overdraft plan agreement with us or any abuse of any such plan per our assessment thereof; (6) there is any misrepresentation regarding any account(s) or service(s); (7) the Credit Union incurs any loss or believes it may incur any loss relating to any loan(s), account(s) or service(s) you have with us; (8) if we believe you have been negligent in protecting any access devices or codes; (9) we deem it necessary to protect the Credit Union from any risks or losses, or otherwise deem it to be in the best interests of the Credit Union, our members or our employees; (10) you breach any promise under this Agreement or any other agreements with us including but not limited to any default or other delinquency with regard to any loan or other agreements; (11) if bankruptcy or any other insolvency proceeding is filed by or against you, or if we otherwise deem you to be insolvent or incapable of meeting your obligations to us; (12) you refuse or fail to cooperate as provided in this Agreement; (13) you have an account that does not maintain a required par value for a membership account or any balance as to all other accounts; (14) you violate any Credit Union policy, procedure or standard or any law, regulation or rule; (15) if you participate or facilitate any transactions for another person who is prohibited from making transactions with us pursuant to applicable laws or Credit Union policy/procedure; (16) making unauthorized posting(s), defacing or removing notices or signs on Credit Union premises and/or social media sites without management authorization; (17) misappropriating Credit Union funds, property, or other material proprietary to the Credit Union; (18) deliberately or repeatedly violating security procedures or safety rules; (19) possessing, using, or being under the influence of illicit drugs on Credit Union premises; (20) engaging in use or possession of weapons of any kind on Credit Union premises except for on-duty law enforcement officers or security officers; (21) any new US or other Country's laws, rules, regulations or other requirements make it impractical or impossible for the Credit Union to meet the requirements of such laws, rules, regulations or other requirements; (22) using one or more credit or debit cards to obtain cash and purchasing power we do not believe appropriate, using such devices to pay credit card balances with the proceeds of other cards, or using such devices in a manner we determine is primarily intended to abuse a rewards program; or (23) We reserve the right to determine if any account, loan or service is being maintained for a purpose other than day-to-day, primary use. Accountholders who persist in making transactions in a manner that we in our sole discretion determine to be calculated solely in order to meet monthly qualifications for rewards or any incentives that we may offer, may have their accounts converted to a different account or closed altogether. We also reserve the right to convert an account to a different account if the account does not have consistent active use over consecutive Statement Cycles, which period we shall determine from time to time.

Expulsion from Membership. We may terminate your membership in the Credit Union in one of three ways. The first way is through a special meeting. Under this option, we may call a special meeting of the members, provide you an opportunity to be heard, and obtain a two-thirds vote of the members present at the special meeting in favor of your expulsion. The second way to terminate your membership is under a nonparticipation policy given to each member that follows certain requirements. The third way to terminate your membership is by a two-third vote of a quorum of the directors of the credit union for cause. Cause is defined as follows: (A) a substantial or repeated violation of the terms of your Membership Agreement with us; (B) a substantial or repeated disruption, including dangerous or abusive behavior, to the credit union's operations; or (C) fraud, attempted fraud, or a conviction of other illegal conduct that a member has been convicted of in relation to [us], including in connection with our employees conducting business on behalf of us.

Before the Board votes on an expulsion, we will provide written notice to your mail address (or email, if applicable) on record or personally provide the written notice. The Credit Union will provide the specific reasons for the expulsion and allow you an opportunity to rebut those reasons through a hearing if you choose. It is your responsibility to keep your contact information with us up to date, and to open and read notices from us. There is no right to an in-person hearing with the Board unless the Board determines to invite you to appear before them. If you fail to request a hearing within 60 calendar days of receipt of the notice, you will be expelled.

You have the right to submit any complaints about your pending expulsion or expulsion to NCUA's Consumer Assistance Center if the complaint cannot be resolved with the Credit Union. We will confirm any expulsion with a letter with information on the effect of the expulsion and how you can request reinstatement. Expulsion or withdrawal from membership does not relieve a member of liability to the Credit Union; and we may demand immediate repayment of the money you owe to us after expulsion, subject to your agreements with us and applicable laws. You may request information on expulsion and a copy of our expulsion policy at any time, including the Credit Union's Bylaws on Expulsion.

Notice on Actions We may Take Upon Termination as Set Forth Above. We, on our own accord, may place a stop payment on any share draft, item or Transaction if we are notified or otherwise reasonably believe that any of the foregoing circumstances have occurred. If you do not accept any deposit or part of a deposit that we attempt to return after termination, then such deposit will no longer earn dividends. Club accounts may be terminated if deposits are not made within certain time periods in successive periods. We are not responsible for any draft, withdrawal, item or Transaction after your account is terminated. However, if we pay any item after termination, you agree to reimburse us upon demand.

Joint Accounts or Services: If our application of the Credit Union's policies or the above remedies affects any accounts or services with multiple parties, we may require the party to whom the restrictions or termination is applied be: (1) removed; (2) the account be closed and then a new account may be reopened absent the affected party; or (3) the restrictions may be applied to the account or service. The Credit Union has no obligation to provide any specific information regarding the basis for taking action under this section to any other owners or parties.

Residence Outside the U.S., Its Possessions or Territories. We may require that all checking accounts and related services be closed or deactivated if you move your residence to a country or place outside the U.S., its possessions or territories. The Credit Union may close your checking account(s) and related services if you do not do so.

Duty to Cooperate. You have a duty to cooperate with us, and any law enforcement or government agent or agency with regard to any claim of fraud, forgery, unauthorized access or any other adverse claim(s).

27. Statutory and Consensual Liens on Shares: By signing a Membership Application or Account Change Form or other agreement conveying a pledge or security interest in shares, or your use of any accounts or services, you have given the Credit Union a lien on any and all funds ("shares") in all joint and individual share accounts, together with all dividends, regardless of the source of the shares or any individual owner's contributions. This lien secures any account owner's joint and individual obligations to us now or in the future, whether direct, indirect, contingent, or secondary; and has priority over all other claims. You agree that this lien is created and/or impressed, as applicable, as of the first date that any applicable account is opened with us. This lien secures all debts you owe us, including but not limited to those arising pursuant to any loan agreements, or under this Agreement, or arising from any insufficient funds item; or fees; or costs; or expenses; or any combination or all of the above. You authorize us to apply shares to any obligations owed to us if you default or fail to pay or satisfy any obligation to us, without any notice to any account owner or other party. The Credit Union's rights are immediate and apply to all accounts.

28. Right of Set Off: You agree that the Credit Union at all times retains the common law equitable right of set off against shares with regard to any debt or obligation owed to us individually or otherwise, which right may be exercised by us without legal process or notice to any account owner.

29. Right of Cross Collateralization: You agree that the Credit Union has the right of cross collateralization as provided for in your loan agreements or applicable law. Through cross collateralization you agree that the collateral for one CPM loan is also pledged to serve as collateral to secure other CPM obligations, including other CPM loans and overdrawn CPM deposit accounts.

30. Status Quo - Collateral Preservation: You specifically agree that all shares on deposit constitute collateral for all obligations owed to the Credit Union. You agree that the Credit Union has the right to preserve this collateral, and may use appropriate administrative procedures (including but not limited to placing a temporary hold or "freeze" on such funds) to safeguard such funds if the Credit Union at any time has reason to believe such collateral may be impaired or at risk due to any default, bankruptcy, breach of any agreement or promise, or as otherwise provided for by our agreements or applicable law, without notice to any owner. In the case of any bankruptcy proceeding, the Credit Union has a right to preserve such collateral as set forth herein as cash collateral; and is not required to surrender or turnover such collateral absent the owner's filing any appropriate motions and the entry of an order either providing for adequate protection of the Credit Union's rights in such collateral or modifying or terminating the automatic stay as to such collateral. You further agree that the Credit Union's exercise of this right to safeguard or "freeze" funds on deposit shall not constitute a violation of the automatic stay afforded by the Bankruptcy Code.

31. Telephone Requests; Recording Data/Communications and Consent to Communications from the Credit Union. You agree that funds in any account(s) with us can be transferred, upon the telephone request of any signer on the account, to another account with us or to any other financial institution. Furthermore, we reserve the right to refuse to execute any telephone request or order. You consent that any communications with us or our affiliates may be monitored and recorded. When you access any services we offer/provide including online and mobile banking to conduct transactions, the information you enter may also be recorded. By using any services you consent to such recording. By providing telephone number(s) to us, now or at any later time, you authorize us and our affiliates and designees to contact you regarding your account(s) with the Credit Union and its affiliates at such numbers using any means, including but not limited to placing calls using an automated dialing system to cell, VoIP or other wireless phone number, or by sending prerecorded messages or text messages, even if charges may be incurred for the calls or text messages.
32. Information About Your Accounts and About You: We will only disclose information to third parties about your account(s) or about you as permitted in this Agreement; as permitted by any applicable laws; or when we are attempting to collect an obligation owed to us.
33. Surrender of Ownership or Other Status: You understand and agree that voluntary surrender or other legal termination of ownership, rights or other status with regard to any account(s) shall terminate all relationships and contractual terms between you and the Credit Union. This will include, but is not limited to, the termination of all rights to information and/or documentation of any type after the date of surrender.
34. Right to Refuse Instructions/Orders: If you ask us to follow instructions that we believe might expose us to claims, suits, losses, expenses, liabilities, or damages, whether directly or indirectly, we may refuse to follow your instructions or may require a bond or other protections. Under this provision, you understand and agree that we may refuse any particular transaction, transaction type or request when we in good faith believe that the transaction or request may: (1) expose the Credit Union to a risk of loss; (2) involve a fraud or scam; (3) be illegal; or (4) otherwise not in the best interest of the Credit Union.
35. Miscellaneous/Governing Law: This Agreement and your and our rights and obligations under this Agreement and any other relationships to which this Agreement applies, are governed and interpreted according to federal law and the law of the state South Carolina where your account is located. If you are not sure where your account is located please contact us. Generally, your account is located in the State of the Credit Union's principal office, which is South Carolina. We reserve the right to transfer your account to another location in another state. If state law and federal law are inconsistent, or if state law is preempted by federal law, federal law governs in all respects. Our web site and the electronic services that we provide (excluding linked sites) are controlled by the Credit Union from its principal offices noted above. While you may choose to access our web site and electronic services from other locations, we make no representation that any information, materials, or functions included in our web site or via our electronic service are appropriate or authorized for use in other jurisdictions. Your access from other locations is made on your own initiative; and you are solely responsible for compliance with any applicable local laws and regulations. Section headings in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only. If any law or judicial ruling renders any term or condition of this Agreement unenforceable, the remaining terms and conditions shall remain in full force and effect. We reserve the right to waive enforcement of any of the terms set forth in this Agreement regarding any Transaction or series of Transactions. Any such waiver will not affect our right to enforce any of our rights with respect to any owner, user or other applicable person/party; or to enforce any of our rights with respect to other Transactions. Any such waiver shall not modify the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
36. Amendments and Changes: Changes to any account or account service requested by any member or account owner can only be made with the express consent of the Credit Union. The Credit Union, in its sole discretion, may change any term or condition of this Agreement, including the method for determining dividends, at any time without notice except as expressly required by applicable law, and any change in the Agreement shall be effective at the earliest time allowed by applicable law. If applicable laws provide no express time period, then notice 10 business days or more in advance of the effective date of any change shall be deemed sufficient.

37. Multiple Party Accounts: Any or all owners can make deposits or withdrawals regardless of contributions. Each owner guarantees the signature of all other owners; and appoints all other owners as agents. We may accept orders, instructions, and requests for future services from any account owner, which shall be binding on all owners. Any individual account owner may withdraw funds, stop payment of Items/Transactions (regardless of who ordered the payment), transfer or pledge to us all or any part of the shares in any account, and block, terminate or discontinue or close any transaction or service without the consent of the other owner(s); however, we have the right to require the written consent of a primary owner before closing the account that supports the primary owner's membership in the Credit Union. We have no obligation to notify the other account owner(s) of any pledge or other actions, orders or instructions by any owner. Each owner is jointly and severally liable for all returned items, overdrafts or any other obligations owed to the Credit Union as a result of any Transaction(s) on a multiple party account, regardless of the drawer, user or authorized user who orders or causes said Transaction(s). Rights of Survivorship: Unless your membership application specifically indicates otherwise, you agree that it's your intention to create a joint tenancy with the right of survivorship (a form of ownership) in any multiple party account and if one or more of the multiple party owners dies, his or her interest in the account passes to the remaining owners; unless subject to our right of set-off or a pledge of the funds in the account(s), in which case all sums in the account(s) will belong to us regardless of contributions, up to the amount of the obligation(s) owed. We may not release any funds to a survivor until all required legal documents are delivered to us.
38. Payable on Death Designations: Payable on Death ("POD") accounts are governed by your agreements with the Credit Union and applicable state law. A POD account instructs us that the designated account is payable to the owner(s) during their lifetimes, and upon death of the last account owner, is payable to the beneficiary(ies) designated by your Membership Application or Account Change Form and pursuant to applicable laws; unless subject to our right of set-off or a pledge of the funds in the account(s), in which case all sums in the account(s) will belong to us up to the amount of the obligation(s) owed. Either owner, during their lifetime, may change any designated beneficiary by written direction to us. If any beneficiary is not of legal age at the time the account(s) are to be paid to beneficiaries hereunder, then we will make a check payable to the named beneficiary and deliver it to the person who presents themselves to be the parent or legal guardian of such beneficiary or as otherwise allowed by applicable law; and upon such payment you agree that we are released from any and all claims and obligations and shall be indemnified per the provisions of Section 44 "Liability; Disputes and Costs and/or Fees" below. Payable on Death accounts are "without rights of survivorship;" meaning that if all named POD beneficiaries pre-decease the owner(s) the applicable funds shall be paid to the estate of the last surviving owner. It is further agreed that upon the vesting of any interest in any rights of a POD beneficiary all sums payable shall be subject to any right of set-off between us and the POD beneficiary.
39. Uniform Gifts to Minors Act and/or Uniform Transfer to Minor Act ("UGMA/UTMA"): All granters, custodians and beneficiaries agree to the terms of this paragraph. If you have signed an account as custodian for a beneficiary under an applicable UGMA and/or UTMA, your rights and duties are governed by that Act. However, since the 50-states provide varying ages for distribution to the beneficiary; and the granter, the custodian and/or the beneficiary may move; and you wish to direct when distribution may be made, you have instructed and agreed that when the beneficiary reaches the age of 18 in all states, the funds in any UGMA/UTMA may be paid or withdrawn by the beneficiary without notice or further action by us as this is the intent of the party establishing this account.
40. Minors Accounts: CPM may offer different services and terms to minor accounts than accounts offered to our general membership, and all owners agree that when the minor reaches the age of majority we may promote a minor account to a general membership account, subject to the account having been satisfactorily handled, and subject to any other promotion criteria established by the credit union. Once an account is promoted to a general membership account it becomes subject to the criteria for those accounts, including credit union rules governing account eligibility and requiring proper handling of the account and services. Failure to abide by those rules could lead to discontinuation or limitation of certain services and features, including the involuntary closure of the account.

41. Representative Payee, VA Fiduciary and Other Government Fiduciary Accounts: The representative payee/fiduciary ("fiduciary") agrees to be bound by the terms of the Account Agreements and to furnish us, upon request, a copy of the written SSA, VA or other authorization designating the fiduciary and such other documents and authorizations as we may deem necessary or appropriate. In opening a fiduciary account, the Credit Union acts only as a depository for the Beneficiary's funds and is under no obligation to act as a fiduciary or to inquire as to the powers or duties of the appointed fiduciary. The fiduciary agrees that he or she is liable to us for any and all obligations incurred by any actions dealing with the account and agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless from and against any and all loss, costs, damage, liability, or exposure, including reasonable attorney's fees, we may suffer or incur arising out of or related to any action or claim by any party with respect to the authority or actions taken by the fiduciary.
42. Club Accounts: The Credit Union offers club plan account(s) to help you save for Christmas, vacations or other purposes. At the end of the club account period, you authorize the Credit Union to pay the balance in your account by depositing the balance to a Credit Union account designated by you. If paid electronically, this payment is deemed a pre-authorized transfer. If you withdraw funds from your club account early, we may assess an early withdrawal fee as provided for in our Fee Schedule.
43. Electronic Records: You acknowledge and agree that we may in our discretion store all records electronically; and that we will not retain and have no obligation to retain any original documents for any period of time. This applies to all documentation including but not limited to checks, transaction records, notes, mortgages, deeds of trust and other loan and/or security documentation. We will routinely destroy all original documentation. We may store records electronically via imaging, scanning, filming or other technology used in the financial services industry for the storage of documentation via internal processes or third-party processors that we approve for these services. You agree that such storage shall be secure and further agree that such records shall for all purposes be recognized and admissible in evidence or otherwise to prove the agreements, rights and obligations of the parties pursuant to any such records.
44. "e-Mail" and Facsimile Communications: You acknowledge and agree that the Internet is considered inherently insecure. Therefore, should you undertake to communicate with us via general email, you agree that we have no liability to you whatsoever for any loss, claim or damages arising or in any way related to our response(s) to any e-mail or other electronic communication, which we in good faith believe you have submitted to us. We have no duty to investigate the validity or to verify any e-mail or other electronic communication; and may respond to an e-mail at either the address provided with the communication, the e-mail address in your Membership Application or Account Change Form, or any other application or written communication actually received by us. Any account owner, co-borrower, or authorized user may change the e-mail address for notices, statements or other information from us at any time. The Credit Union may not immediately receive e-mail communications that you send. Although we may use general email as provided herein, we reserve the right to require any notices from you be submitted to us in writing, and we may refuse to send certain information through unsecured e-mail communications.
45. Liability; Disputes and Costs and/or Fees: If your account is subject to any legal or governmental action ("action ") we may pay out funds from your account according to that action or alternatively place a hold on the funds in the account until the matter is resolved. Unless otherwise prohibited, all such actions are secondary to our security interest and statutory lien rights as set forth herein. You understand and agree that you may be charged a research fee for any time spent by our employees (or any affiliated person or organization) addressing: 1) any legal, regulatory or governmental action initiated by any person and/or private or government organization against you or your accounts or for information concerning you or the accounts; or 2) any claim made by you for any transaction that is determined to be authorized.

If you or any representative or purported representative submits to us any instructions or requests ("instruction") based on a legal document including but not limited to a Power of Attorney, Court Order, Appointment or Trust you agree we may not honor such instruction until such time as we are satisfied of the legality and/or authenticity of the instruction.

You agree that you are responsible for the actions and/or transaction activity of any third persons you appoint or authorize including but not limited to attorneys in fact; representative payees; and custodians for any and all obligations relating or arising from activity on your accounts; and you agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless from and against any and all loss, costs, damages, liability, or exposure, including reasonable attorney's fees, we may suffer or incur arising out of or related to any action or claim by any party with respect to the authority or actions taken by persons you appoint or authorize to transact business on your behalf.

If there is a dispute between any person(s) and/or private or government organization over an account, or we are uncertain who is entitled to access an account or the funds in an account ("disputes"), you agree that we may hold the funds in the account and may not release the funds in the account until all persons or organizations that may claim an interest in the accounts/funds agree in a writing that meets our requirements addressing what should be done with the accounts and/or the funds; or until we receive a court order instructing us what to do. You understand and agree that such a hold is beneficial to both you and us to ensure that only persons who or organizations that are entitled to access the account and/or the funds in the account obtains access thereto. Alternatively, in the event of a dispute or uncertainty over who is entitled to access an account or the funds in an account, at our discretion we may deposit the funds in an account with a court and ask the court to resolve the dispute or uncertainty over who is entitled to the funds. In such instances, we may deduct our attorney fees and court costs from the funds in the account to be deposited with the court.

Limitations on Claims – Statutes of Limitations:

General Limitations on Credit Union Liability: We are not liable to you for any Loss caused by an event that is beyond our reasonable control including if circumstances beyond our reasonable control prevent us or delay us in performing our obligations with regard to any transaction, including acting on a payment order, crediting any funds transfer to your Account(s) , processing an Item or crediting your Account (s). Circumstances beyond our reasonable control include , but are not limited to: a natural disaster; adverse weather conditions; acts of God ; acts of terrorism; emergency conditions including any risk of loss to the Credit Union; a legal constraint or governmental action or inaction ; strike or stoppage of labor; power failure; the breakdown or failure of our equipment for any reason ; the breakdown of any communication or transmission facilities, any mail or courier service; suspension of payments by another party; or any matter resulting in whole or part from your act, omission, negligence or fault.

46. Third Party Documents: From time to time, you may present us with certain documents that the Credit Union is not a party to (examples include but are not limited to: trust agreements, business operating agreements, contracts, court orders such as divorce settlement agreements, etc.). The Credit Union may require such documents for the purpose of proving the existence of an entity or trust as required by applicable laws. However, the Credit Union is not a party to such agreements and mere possession of these documents does not in any way imply or impute knowledge of the contents of such documents to the Credit Union or its employees.

47. Costs, Expenses and Attorneys' Fees ALL ACCOUNTS/ SERVICES. All owners of account(s) or service(s) with us agree, jointly and severally, to pay us for all costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees we may incur: (1) If it is necessary for us to bring any legal or other action to collect any sum you owe the Credit Union; (2) If we incur any costs or expense as a result of any order or instruction received from any owner or any owner's agent under this Agreement , any adverse claim, legal process; your failure to comply with any obligation in this Membership Agreement or otherwise; (3) If we incur any expense as a result of any dispute, adverse or inconsistent claims; (4) If we bring any action contemplated in this Agreement ; (5) If we successfully defend any claim against the Credit Union brought by any owner, agent, personal representative, executor, heir or other party in interest brought via any formal or informal process (including but not limited to arbitration or mediation) involving your accounts or services with us; or (6) If we deem it necessary to seek the advice or opinion of legal counsel or other professionals regarding the bona fides or legality of any transaction(s) to/from your accounts or involving any services with us, or any request for information or documentation regarding any of your accounts and/or services with us. If you are responsible to pay us any costs of collection or legal expenses incurred in collecting any amount you owe; in enforcing or protecting our rights under this Agreement or otherwise; or as provided in this subsection , including but not limited to costs of repossession, repair, appraisal, and all other costs or expenses, you agree to pay us the actual amount of such costs and expenses together with reasonable attorney fees. In the case of any collection action you agree that 20% of the unpaid balance or such greater sum as may be appropriate based on the circumstances shall be a reasonable amount, unless applicable law specifically provides otherwise. Further, you agree to pay the Credit Union an additional sum for any costs, legal expenses or attorneys' fees incurred in any appellate, bankruptcy or post-judgment proceedings, except as limited or prohibited by applicable law. Any costs, expenses or fees hereunder will be paid from any of your account(s) with the Credit Union before payment to any owner or other party. If the amounts in your account(s) are not sufficient, then the owner(s) of the affected account(s) or parties to any applicable services will immediately pay any difference.

RESOLVING CLAIMS:

If you and the Credit Union are not able to resolve a claim ourselves, then you and we agree that the claim will be resolved as provided in this Resolving Claims section. This is a dispute resolution provision. Please read it carefully.

ARBITRATION: This section does not apply to any dispute in which the amount in controversy is within the jurisdictional limits of, and is filed in, a small claims court. These arbitration provisions shall survive closure of your account or termination of all business with us. If any provision of this section is ruled invalid or unenforceable, the invalid or unenforceable part of this "ARBITRATION" sub-section shall be rendered null and void, but the remaining terms of this Resolving Claims section shall remain in full force and effect – See "Rules of Interpretation" below.

Arbitration Rules: In the event of a dispute relating to or arising out of your account, this Agreement, any loan agreements or any other services you may have with us now or at any time in the future - you or we may elect to arbitrate the dispute. At your election, the arbitration shall be conducted by either Judicial Arbitration and Mediation(JAMS) or the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") (or, if neither of these arbitration organizations will serve, then a comparable substitute arbitration organization agreed upon by the parties or, if the parties cannot agree, chosen by a court of competent jurisdiction). If JAMS is selected, the arbitration will be handled according to its Streamlined Arbitration Rules unless the Claim is for $250,000 or more, in which case its Comprehensive Arbitration Rules shall apply. If the AAA is selected, the arbitration will be handled according to its Commercial Arbitration Rules. You may obtain rules and forms for JAMS by contacting JAMS at 1.800.352.5267 or www.jamsadr.com and for the AAA by contacting the AAA at 1.800.778.7879 or www.adr.org. Any arbitration hearing that you attend will take place in the federal judicial district in which you reside. Without regard to which arbitration body is selected to resolve the dispute, any disputes between you and us as to whether your claim falls within the scope of this arbitration clause shall be determined solely by the arbitrator, and not by any court.

Arbitration Process: Arbitration involves the review and resolution of the dispute by a neutral party. The arbitrator's decision will generally be final and binding. At your request, for claims made to consumer accounts, we will advance your filing and hearing fees for any claim you may file against us; the arbitrator will decide whether we or you will ultimately be responsible for those fees. Arbitration can only decide our or your dispute and cannot consolidate or join claims of other persons who may have similar claims. There will be no authority or right for any disputes to be arbitrated on a class action basis.

Effects of Arbitration: If either of us chooses arbitration, neither of us will have the right to litigate the dispute in court or have a jury trial. In addition, you will not have the right to participate as a representative or member of any class of claimants, or in any other form of representative capacity that seeks monetary or other relief beyond your individual circumstances, pertaining to any dispute subject to arbitration. There shall be no authority for any claims to be arbitrated on a class action or any other form of representative basis. Arbitration can only decide your or our claim, and you may not consolidate or join the claims of other persons who may have similar claims, including without limitation claims for public injunctive or other equitable relief as to our other customers or members of the general public. Any such monetary, injunctive, or other equitable relief shall be limited solely to your accounts, agreements, and transaction with us. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any question as to the validity and effect of this class action waiver shall be decided solely by a court of competent jurisdiction, and not by the arbitrator.

THE FOLLOWING SECTIONS APPLY ONLY TO THE EXTENT THERE IS AN EXPRESSLY APPLICABLE LAW OR JUDICIAL RULING THAT EXPRESSLY PREVENTS USE OF ARBITRATION AS THE METHOD OF DISPUTE RESOLUTION; OR IN ANY CASE WHERE A NON-ARBITRATION PROCESS IS USED AS THE METHOD OF DISPUTE RESOLUTION BY THE AGREEMENT OF THE PARTIES, OR WHERE ARBITRATION IS EXPRESSLY EXCLUDED FROM ARBITRATION PURSUANT TO THE JURISDICTION LIMITS STATED ABOVE.

What does "Claim" Mean? Claim means any claim, dispute or controversy (whether under a statute, in contract, tort or otherwise and whether for money damages, penalties or declaratory or equitable relief) by either you or the Credit Union against the other; or against any employee, agent or volunteer of the other, arising from or relating in any way to this Agreement or any Agreements to which the Membership Account Agreement & Disclosures apply, in any manner (including any renewals, extensions or modifications) or any relationships between us.

How Claims will be Resolved

IF either party does not elect Arbitration as provided for above; or if Arbitration is deemed invalid or unenforceable, then the parties agree that the following terms and conditions shall apply:

JURY TRIAL AND CLASS ACTION WAIVER

AS PERMITTED BY LAW, YOU AND WE AGREE AND UNDERSTAND THAT YOU AND WE BOTH GIVE UP THE RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY. THIS IS A JURY TRIAL WAIVER.

AS PERMITTED BY LAW YOU AND WE AGREE AND UNDERSTAND THAT YOU AND WE BOTH AGREE THAT WE ARE PRECLUDED FROM PARTICIPATING IN OR BEING REPRESENTED IN ANY CLASS ACTION; OR JOINING OR CONSOLIDATING THE CLAIMS OF OTHER PERSONS. THIS IS A CLASS ACTION WAIVER.

You and we both agree that all Claims will be resolved in court by a judge without a jury trial, as permitted by law. However, if permitted by law, then instead of a trial by judge without a jury trial, any claim(s) will be sent to a judicial reference to be heard by a neutral individual (commonly referred to a “referee”) which remains in the court system subject to the same rules of procedure, discovery, evidence and appeal. The judicial referee will generally be an active or retired judge or attorney with 10 or more years of experience, chosen by mutual agreement between you and the Credit Union. If we are unable to agree on a judicial referee, then the referee will be appointed according to the procedure for appointment under applicable law.

The judicial referee, sitting alone without a jury, will decide questions of law and fact; and will resolve the Claim. This includes the applicability of the Resolving Claims section and the validity of the Membership Account Agreement & Disclosures.

Judicial reference will be governed by applicable laws of the state having jurisdiction of any Claim. If permitted by law the referee is empowered to provide all temporary or provisional remedies and rule on any motion that would be authorized in pretrial or trial proceedings in court, including but not limited to motions for summary judgment or summary adjudication. The decision that results from the decision of the referee will be entered as a judgment in the court that appointed the referee. You and the Credit Union both reserve the right to seek appellate review of any judgment or order to the same extent permitted in a court of law.

Limitation and Non-Severability Regardless of any other provision of this Resolving Claims section, you and we both agree that the validity and effect of the jury trial and class action waiver may be determined only by a court or judicial referee as provided herein. You and we both have the right to appeal any limitation or invalidation of these waivers.

Rules of Interpretation Except as provided in the Limitation and Non-Severability clause above, if any portion of this Resolving Claims section is determined to be invalid or unenforceable, it will not invalidate the remaining portions of this section or any other part of this Agreement. If there is any conflict or inconsistency between this Resolving Claims section and the other terms of this Agreement or any other applicable agreements, this Resolving Claims section shall govern. If there is any conflict between this Resolving Claims section and any other dispute provisions (whether it be for reference or any other form of dispute resolution), this Resolving Claims section will prevail form Claims arising out of or relating to this Membership Account Agreement & Disclosures or other agreements or transactions referred to herein or contemplate by this Membership Account Agreement & Disclosures.

Jurisdiction and Venue Any action or proceeding regarding your account or this Membership Account Agreement & Disclosures must be brought in the state where the Credit Union maintains your account. You submit to the personal jurisdiction of that state. Any action or proceeding will be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the Governing Law section of this Agreement. Please refer to section 34 “Miscellaneous/Governing Law” above.

ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFERS AGREEMENT AND DISCLOSURES

This section applies to payment orders and funds transfers governed by the Electronic Fund Transfer Act. When you enroll in online or mobile banking or other services, we will provide you the applicable agreements that govern the use of those services ("Online Services"). You agree that these terms shall apply to these other services except where those other agreements expressly provide other or contrary terms.

If you have any questions regarding electronic banking transactions or believe that an unauthorized transaction has occurred, please call the Credit Union using the number provided in the Contact Us Sheet or the Contact Us information we provide online. Please read this disclosure carefully because it tells you your rights and obligations for the transactions listed. You should keep this notice for future reference.

Types of Transactions: These are the types of Electronic Fund Transfers that you can accomplish with us (assuming you make arrangements to do so).

Electronic Fund Transfers Initiated by Third Parties. You may authorize a third party to initiate electronic fund transfers between your account and the third party's account. These transfers to make or receive payment may be one-time occurrences or may recur as directed by you. These transfers may use the Automated Clearing House (ACH) or other payments network. Your authorization to the third party to make these transfers can occur in a number of ways. In all cases, these third-party transfers will require you to provide the third party with your account number and credit union information. Thus, you should only provide your Credit Union and account number information (whether over the phone, the Internet, or via some other method) to trusted third parties whom you have authorized to initiate these electronic fund transfers. Examples of these transfers include, but are not limited to:

Direct Deposits: You can arrange for direct deposits to your checking or savings account(s).

Preauthorized Payments: You can arrange to pay certain recurring bills from your checking or savings account(s).

Electronic Check Conversion: You may authorize a merchant or other payee to make a one-time electronic payment from your checking account using information from your check to pay for purchases or pay bills.

Electronic Returned Check Charge: You may authorize a merchant or other payee to initiate an electronic fund transfer to collect a charge in the event a check is returned for insufficient funds.

Account Access at Automated Teller Machines: Your CPM debit card may be linked to one checking and one savings account. We will automatically issue you a PIN for your debit card. Your CPM credit card will be linked to one line of credit, and we will issue you a PIN upon request. You may use these cards at CPM or affiliated ATMs. Refer to cpmfed.com for more information and a list of our participating surcharge free networks.

The following transactions are generally available at our ATMs:

- Make cash withdrawals from your checking and savings accounts.
- Get cash advances from your credit card (Refer to your cardmember agreement for any cash advance fees and finance charges that may apply for credit cards/lines.)
- Deposit funds to checking and savings accounts at CPM ATMs offering deposit functionality. Our deposit taking ATMs do not require envelopes and allow you to deposit both cash and checks. We do not accept deposits at any affiliated or non-affiliated ATMs.
- Transfer funds from your account associated with your card.
- Check the current balance of your linked checking, savings, and credit card accounts.

Not all functions are available at all ATMs.

Purchases at Merchants: You may use any of your Credit Union Debit Cards to make purchases at merchants that accept Visa® debit cards. You may use your Credit Union ATM Card and any of your Credit Union Debit Cards to make purchases by entering your PIN at participating merchants. You may also get cash from a merchant if the merchant permits. Purchases made with your card will result in debits to your "primary" checking account. These transactions will be itemized on your monthly statement, including the merchant name, location, the date of purchase and the amount of the purchase.

Returns at Merchants: We do not currently limit the returns of purchases made with your Credit Union Debit Card, but we reserve the right to. We may limit returns on an individual basis if the activity is not consistent with normal cardholder use.

Other Electronic Transactions: In addition to transactions initiated by using your Credit Union Debit Card, there are other electronic banking transactions that you may arrange through your account. These include:

- Telephone/personal computer activated transfers of funds from your accounts with us to other accounts with us or to third parties. These include but are not limited to transfers made by telephone, text, online and mobile banking.
- Automatic transfer of funds between checking and savings accounts.
- Automatic periodic payments to third parties or us from checking or savings accounts (for example, monthly mortgage payments, installment loan payments, insurance payments, utility payments).
- Direct deposit to checking or savings accounts (for example, payroll checks, social security payments).
- Electronic check conversions from your checking account using a blank, partial or fully completed personal check at merchant locations.
- Payments made to your account through your Credit Union Debit Card.
- You can also use any of your Credit Union Debit Cards to obtain a cash advance from your checking account at any Visa® member financial institution anywhere in the world.

LIMITS ON TRANSFERS: The terms of your deposit account may restrict the number of withdrawals you may make from your account each month. Restrictions described earlier in this Agreement and in the Fee Schedule and other disclosures and agreements you received at the time your account was opened or when additional products or services were accessed, will also apply to your electronic withdrawals and electronic payments unless specified otherwise.

Security: For security reasons, there are limitations on the transactions that you may perform with any of your Credit Union Debit Cards or Credit Union ATM Cards per day. There are limitations on the number of transactions that can be performed per day and the limits may vary. For security reasons we do not disclose these limits. There are limitations on the dollar amount of cash withdrawals at ATMs and/or cash that you receive from merchants over the amount of your purchase. There are also limitations on the total dollar amount of purchases at merchants and/or cash advances at Visa® member financial institutions you may perform during each 24-hour period beginning at 5:00 p.m. Central Time. Our standard transaction limits are set forth below. We may change these limitations by lowering them based on periodic risk assessments, or raising them to accommodate special seasonal demands, and we reserve the right to make such changes without notice to you. Transfer limits are also subject to temporary reductions to protect the security of member accounts or transfer systems.

Debit Card Transactions: When you use your Credit Union Visa® Debit Card (Debit Card) for payment, the merchant requests the Credit Union to authorize the transaction amount. At the time of the request, we authorize (promise to pay) or decline the merchant's request. If we authorize (promise to pay) we will reduce your Available Balance by the amount of the merchant's authorization request. Some merchants (e.g., hotels, restaurants, gas stations, car rental agencies) request an authorization that is an estimated amount of the anticipated purchase instead of the full purchase amount. As a result, the reduction of your Available Balance may be less or greater than the final debit card transaction amount presented for payment. It is important to note that your Available Balance may change between the time a debit card transaction is authorized and when the debit card transaction is presented for payment.

A Debit Card authorization will be reflected as a pending transaction from the time we approve the preauthorization request until the merchant presents the item for payment, a completion message is received, or the preauthorization hold expires, whichever occurs first. The most common preauthorization hold period is 2 days. For member convenience, we may place a hold of less than one day for purchases from automated fuel dispensers. Certain travel related transactions may be subject to hold periods of up to 5 days, including transactions for hotels and car rentals. If the debit card settlement has not been presented for payment prior to the hold expiration, the hold will be removed from your pending transactions and your Available Balance will no longer be reduced by the authorization amount. Due to prior authorization (promise to pay), if the debit card transaction is presented for payment at a later date, we will pay the item regardless of your Available Balance.

If any Debit Card transaction results in a negative Available Balance at the time it is presented for payment-even if your Available Balance was positive at the time the Debit Card transaction was authorized-you may be charged an Overdraft Paid Fee. For more information on Available Balance please review the following sections in this Agreement:

- Section 2 “General Definitions / Requirements / Biometrics”
- Section 10 “Transactions from Your Account(s)”
- Sections 16 through 19 dealing with Overdrafts-Avoiding, Monitoring, and Overdraft Protection Services

Please know, it is your responsibility to ensure your account has a sufficient Available Balance to cover all transactions you conduct. We recommend keeping a record of your balance and deducting every transaction at the time you initiate it.

Our normal limits are:

- ATM withdrawals may not exceed $805.00 per day and are subject to available funds in your accounts including but not limited to your savings, checking and any lines of credit combined.
- Point of Sale (POS) transactions or Debit Card transactions may not exceed $3,000.00 per day and are subject to available funds in your account including which may include any Overdraft Privilege availability.
- At our discretion, some members may be granted higher daily limits for ATM withdrawals, POS transactions, and Debit Card transactions.

Our normal limits for minors are:

- ATM withdrawals may not exceed $505.00 per day and are subject to available funds in your accounts including but not limited to your savings, checking and any lines of credit combined.
- Point of Sale (POS) transactions or Debit Card transactions may not exceed $1,500.00 per day and are subject to available funds in your account.

However, we may adjust these limits higher or lower as we see fit, including treating cardholders differently based on credit union defined criteria. You may confirm your limits by calling us using the information provided in our Contact Us Sheet or the Contact Us information we provide online, or by visiting one of our branches.

FEES: We will charge you fees for electronic fund transfers in accordance with the information found in the Fee Schedule. The fees may be changed at any time, subject to our giving you any notice required by law.

ATM Surcharges. When you use an ATM that is not identified as ours with the Credit Union name, you may be charged a fee by the ATM operator or any network used to complete the transaction.

USING YOUR CARD FOR INTERNATIONAL TRANSACTIONS: You may use your Credit Union Debit Card or ATM card for retail purchases with international merchants, for international cash advances and all transactions performed at international ATMs that bear any of the network logos found on your card. Refer to the Fee Schedule for fee information. We may block transactions in certain foreign countries. You may reach us for more information by using the information in our Contact Us Sheet or the Contact Us information we provide online, or by calling the number printed on the back of your Debit or ATM Card. Some merchant and ATM transactions, even if you and/or the merchant or ATM are located in the United States, are considered international transactions under the applicable network rules, in which case we will add International Processing Fees to those transactions. The Credit Union does not control how these merchants, ATMs and transactions are classified for this purpose. If the transaction requires a currency conversion, the exchange rate in effect when processed may differ from the rate in effect on the date of the transaction or the date of the posting to your Account.

Transactions processed through the Visa® system will be converted according to the applicable rules established by Visa®. Foreign currency transactions will be converted to U.S. Dollars by multiplying the amount of the foreign currency times (a) a rate selected by Visa® from the range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which rate may vary from the rate Visa® itself receives, or (b) the government-mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date. For transactions processed through other networks, international currency transactions will be converted by that network in accordance with their rules. Additional fees may apply. If you need to contact us about your Debit or ATM card while outside of the United States, use the information provided in our Contact Us Sheet or the Contact Us information we provide online, or call us at the number printed on the back of your Debit or ATM card.

DOCUMENTATION: Terminal transfers. You can get a receipt at the time you make any transfer to or from your account using Automated Teller Machines or point-of-sale terminals. However, you may not get a receipt if the amount of the transfer is $15.00 or less. Pre-authorized credits. If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you can call the Credit Union's 24-Hour Banking or visit CPM Anytime Online Banking at cpmfed.com to find out whether or not the deposit has been made.

Periodic statements. You will get a monthly account statement unless there are no transfers in a particular month. In any case, you will get the statement at least quarterly for an account to or from which you have arranged for electronic access.

PREAUTHORIZED PAYMENTS: If you have arranged for automatic periodic payments to be deducted from your checking or savings account and these payments vary by more than an amount you previously agreed to, you should be notified by the originator at least ten (10) calendar days prior to the date the payment will be deducted. If the date upon which your payment is scheduled to be deducted changes, you should be notified by the originator at least seven (7) calendar days prior to the date the payment will be deducted. To confirm the completion of automatic transfers, payments and/or direct deposits, please use CPM Anytime Online Banking or Mobile Banking, or call our automated phone service system Personal Account Line (PAL) using the number provided in our Contact Us Sheet or the Contact Us information we provide online.

Right to Stop Payment of Preauthorized Transfers: To stop a preauthorized electronic payment or transfer, please call us using the information in our Contact Us Sheet or the Contact Us information we provide online. You must call in time for us to receive your request and to be able to act upon it, which in the case of these electronic payments, is at least three business days before the transfer is scheduled to occur. We may also require you to put your request in writing and forward it to us within 14 days after you call. If you order us to stop one of these payments at least 3 business days before the transfer is scheduled, and we do not do so, we will be liable for your losses or damages.

OUR LIABILITY: Liability for failure to make transfers. If we do not complete a transfer to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages. However, there are some exceptions. We will not be liable, for instance:

1. You do not have enough money in your account to make the transaction through no fault of ours.
2. The transaction goes over the credit limit on your overdraft line.
3. The terminal where you were making the transaction does not have enough cash.
4. The terminal or other system was not working properly, and you knew about the breakdown when you started the transaction.
5. Circumstances beyond our control (such as fire, flood or electrical failure) prevent the transaction, despite reasonable precautions that we have taken.
6. You have not properly followed instructions for operation of the ATM or system.
7. The funds in your account are subject to legal process or other similar encumbrance.
8. The transaction would exceed one of the established limits contained in this Agreement or by other Credit Union agreements.
9. Access to your account has been blocked after you have reported your Access Device lost or stolen or you use a damaged or expired Access Device.
10. The Credit Union has a reasonable basis to believe an access device has been compromised; or that other actions/circumstances cause us to believe there is a possibility of unauthorized activity or other risk involving an access device we have issued.

Authorized Transactions: We assume that all transactions performed with your Credit Union ATM Card or any of your Credit Union Debit Cards and/or your personal identification number (PIN) are authorized unless you promptly notify us to the contrary. If you intentionally provide another person with the means to perform electronic banking transactions using your account, any resulting transactions will be treated as if they were performed and authorized by you. Such treatment will continue until you notify the Credit Union at the phone number set forth in the Contact Us Sheet or the Contact Us information provided online, or on the back of your card that the other person is no longer authorized to use your card and/or PIN (in which case the card and PIN and/or account will have to be deactivated). You may also write to us, but your revocation of authority will not be valid until we actually receive it and have an opportunity to act upon it. We will have no obligation until notice is actually received by us.

If you link any of your accounts or services to a third party app or payment service (including but not limited to Cash App, PayPal, Venmo) you understand and agree that these are not Credit Union services; and any transactions you make will be subject to your agreements with the app or service provider. You understand that these apps and services do not provide the same protections from fraud or other misapplication of funds as traditional direct banking services. If we transfer any funds as directed by you or anyone you authorize to the app or third party service provider such transfer(s) shall in all respects be an authorized transaction and we will have no further obligation or liability if the app or provider then transfers the funds to a fraudster or the funds are otherwise misapplied. Further, you understand that funds transferred to/via a third party App may not be federally or otherwise insured; and you assume all risks should your funds become unavailable for any reason.

UNAUTHORIZED TRANSACTIONS AND LOST OR STOLEN CARDS/ ACCESS DEVICES: An unauthorized transaction is one that another person conducts without your permission and from which you receive no benefit. In order to avoid unauthorized transactions, please observe the following basic precautions:

- Do not keep your Credit Union ATM Card or Credit Union Debit Card and personal identification number (PIN) together. Do not write your PIN on your card.

- Do not provide your card or reveal your PIN to another person. If you do so, you authorize that person to conduct transactions using your card or PIN. You are liable for that person's transactions until you notify the Credit Union at the phone numbers set forth in the Contact Us Sheet or the Contact Us information we provide online, or on the back of your card, that the person is no longer authorized to use your Card or PIN.
- Notify the Credit Union at the phone numbers set forth in the Contact Us Sheet or the Contact Us information we provide online, or on the back of your Card, or do so at any Credit Union branch of the loss, theft or unauthorized use of your Card or PIN.
- Notify the Credit Union at the phone numbers set forth in the Contact Us Sheet or the Contact Us information we provide online, or on the back of your Card, or do so at any Credit Union branch, if you think an electronic banking transaction is incorrectly reported on a receipt or statement. Failure to promptly notify the Credit Union as provided above of the loss, theft, or unauthorized use of your Card or PIN will result in inconvenience to you and will hinder the efficient operation of your account. It may also affect your liability for transactions.

CREDIT UNION FRAUD REPORTING: To report fraud or unauthorized activity, call or write us using the information in our Contact Us Sheet or the Contact Us information we provide online, or on the back of your card.

In addition to the required reporting above, you may also notify our Supervisory Committee, if you choose. They provide independent oversight of the Credit Union and you may write them at:

CPM Federal Credit Union
Attn: Supervisory Committee
P O Box 1306
Greer, SC 29650

You may also email them at suppcomm@cpmfed.com.

We reserve the right to cancel, block, and not renew your access device for any reason, with or without prior notice. Reasons for suspension of access may include, for example: Detection of suspicious or fraudulent activity; Lack of usage; Misuse; or Access devices returned as undeliverable by postal service.

CONSUMER LIABILITY FOR UNAUTHORIZED TRANSFERS: Liability for Unauthorized Transfers. Tell us AT ONCE if you believe any access device or PIN has been lost or stolen. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your Account (plus your maximum overdraft line of credit). If you tell us within two (2) business days, you can lose no more than $50.00 if someone used your Card or PIN without your permission. If you do NOT tell us within two (2) business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your Card or PIN, and we can establish that we could have stopped someone from using your Card or PIN without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.00. Also, if your statement shows transfers that you did not make, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within sixty (60) days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money lost after the sixty (60) days if we can establish that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time. If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods. If you believe that your card or code has been lost or stolen or that someone has transferred or may transfer money from your Account without your permission, call or write to us at the telephone number or address set forth in our Contact Us Sheet or the Contact Us information we provide online. Special Rule for Debit VISA® Purchases: For Debit VISA® card purchases, you will generally have no liability for unauthorized purchases. However, if we determine that the unauthorized transactions occurred because of your gross negligence or fraud, these special limitations on liability may not apply, up to $500.

BUSINESS DAYS and DAILY "CUT-OFF" LIMITS: Our business days are Monday through Friday. Holidays are not included. Details regarding the availability of check deposits, including cut-off times, may be found in our Funds Availability Policy. Requests for domestic outgoing wires must be received by 4:00 PM and 3:00 PM for international outgoing wires to be considered for same day processing. Wires may be sent from eligible share types. Eligible share types include a savings, checking, money market or other savings account. Services provided through CPM Anytime Online Banking and Mobile Banking (such as eDeposits, external transfers, BillPay, and person-to-person payments) have separate cut-off times and limits and those are detailed in the disclosures provided when you opt for those services.

CONFIDENTIALITY: We will disclose information to third parties about your account as permitted by law or the transfers you make: 1. where it is necessary for completing transfers; or 2. in order to verify the existence and condition of your account for a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant; or 3. in order to comply with government agency or court orders; or 4. if you give us your written permission; or 5. according to our privacy pledge, which generally permits us to share information with companies that perform marketing or other services on our behalf.

ERROR RESOLUTION NOTICE: In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers, call the Credit Union using the information in our Contact Us Sheet or the Contact Us information provided online, or visit any Credit Union branch as soon as you can, if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer listed on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared.

1. Tell us your name and account number (if any).
2. Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
3. Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell us orally, we may require that you send us your dispute or question in writing within ten business days. We will determine whether an error occurred within ten business days after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 days to investigate your dispute or question. If we decide to do this, we will credit your account within ten business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your dispute or question in writing and we do not receive it within ten business days, we might not provisionally credit your account.

For errors involving new accounts, point-of-sale, or foreign-initiated transactions, we may take up to 90 days to investigate your dispute or question. For new accounts, we may take up to 20 business days to credit your account for the amount you think is in error.

We will tell you the results within three business days after completing our investigation. If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

NOTICE OF ATM/NIGHT DEPOSIT FACILITY USER PRECAUTIONS

As with all financial transactions, please exercise discretion when using an automated teller machine (ATM) or night deposit facility. For your own safety, be careful. The following suggestions may be helpful:

1. Prepare for your transactions at home to minimize your time at the ATM or night deposit facility.
2. Mark each transaction in your account record, but not while at the ATM or night deposit facility. Always save your ATM receipts. Do not leave them at the ATM or night deposit facility because they may contain important account information.
3. Compare your records with the account statements you receive.
4. Do not lend your ATM card or Debit Card to anyone.
5. Remember, do not leave your card at the ATM. Do not leave any documents at a night deposit facility.
6. Protect the secrecy of your Personal Identification Number (PIN). Protect your Debit or ATM card as though it were cash. Don't tell anyone your PIN. Don't give anyone information regarding your Debit or ATM card or PIN over the telephone. Never enter your PIN in any ATM that does not look genuine, has been modified, has a suspicious device attached, or is operating in a suspicious manner. Don't write your PIN where it can be discovered. For example, don't keep a note of your PIN in your wallet or purse.
7. Prevent others from seeing you enter your PIN by using your body to shield their view.
8. If you lose your Debit or ATM card or if it is stolen, promptly notify us. You should consult the other disclosures you have received about electronic fund transfers for additional information about what to do if your card is lost or stolen.
9. When you make a transaction, be aware of your surroundings. Look out for suspicious activity near the ATM or night deposit facility, particularly if it is after sunset. At night, be sure that the facility (including the parking area and walkways) is well lighted. Consider having someone accompany you when you use the facility, especially after sunset. If you observe any problem, go to another ATM or night deposit facility.
10. Do not accept assistance from anyone you do not know when using an ATM or night deposit facility.
11. If you notice anything suspicious or if any other problem arises after you have begun an ATM transaction, you may want to cancel the transaction, take your card and leave. You might consider using another ATM or coming back later.

12. Do not display your cash; pocket it as soon as the ATM transaction is completed and count the cash later when you are in the safety of your own car, home, or other secure surrounding.
13. At a drive-up facility, make sure all the car doors are locked and all of the windows are rolled up, except the driver's window. Keep the engine running and remain alert to your surroundings.
14. We want the ATM and night deposit facility to be safe and convenient for you. Therefore, please tell us if you know of any problem with a facility. For instance, let us know if a light is not working or there is any damage to a facility. Please report any suspicious activity or crimes to both the operator of the facility and local law enforcement officials immediately.

VISA® Account Updater (VAU) — VAU is an account updating service in which your Debit or Credit card is automatically enrolled. When your Debit or Credit card(s) expire, are lost or stolen and new Debit or Credit cards are issued, the service may update relevant card data (card numbers and expiration dates) to appropriate merchants who participate in an effort to facilitate uninterrupted processing of your recurring charges. This service provides updates to a Visa database only. The database is accessed by those qualified merchants seeking your account information after you have requested they process a recurring payment or payments. This service is provided as a free benefit to you. If at any time you wish to opt-out of the VAU service or if you have any questions, please call the Credit Union using the number provided in the Contact Us Sheet or the Contact Us information we provide online.

FUNDS AVAILABILITY POLICY

Notice: In accordance with 12 CFR 229, Availability of Funds and Collection of Checks (Regulation CC), we need to inform you of our policy regarding your rights to draw funds against deposits you have made to any transaction account at our institution. Transaction accounts are accounts that do not limit the number or types of withdrawals or transfers you may make. Our Funds Availability policy is outlined below. The Credit Union reserves the right to delay the availability of funds deposited to accounts that are not transaction accounts for periods longer than those disclosed in this policy.

YOU SHOULD KNOW THAT:

Your Ability To Withdraw Funds

Our policy is to generally make funds from your deposits available to you on the day of your deposit. The funds will be available for cash withdrawals and for payment on any checks you have written.

Please remember that even after we have made the funds available to you and you have withdrawn the funds, you are still responsible for checks you deposit that are returned to us unpaid and for any other problems involving your deposit.

DETERMINING THE AVAILABILITY OF A DEPOSIT. The day funds become available is determined by counting business days from the day of your deposit. Every day is a business day except Saturdays, Sundays, and federal holidays. We offer several options and/or channels to make a deposit, including in-person and electronically. The availability of funds may differ depending on the channel or option you select to make a deposit. If you make a deposit before our "cutoff time" on a business day we are open, we will consider that day to be the day of your deposit for purposes of calculating when your funds will become available. However, if you make a deposit after the cutoff time, or on a day we are not open, we will consider that the deposit was made on the next business day we are open.

Our cutoff times vary from branch to branch and by channel. The earliest cutoff time at any of our branches is 5:00 p.m. (EST). Deposits you send by mail are considered deposited on the business day it arrives if it arrives by the cutoff time at the branch of deposit. In all cases, availability of any deposit assumes that a requested withdrawal will not overdraw the account.

IMMEDIATE AVAILABILITY FOR CERTAIN ITEMS. The following types of deposits will usually be available for withdrawal immediately if deposited in person to an employee of ours:

- Cash;
- U.S. Treasury checks;
- U.S. Postal Service Money Orders;
- Federal Reserve Bank and Federal Home Loan Bank checks;
- State and local government checks;
- Cashier's, Certified, or Teller's checks;
- Checks drawn on our institution;
- The first $275 from the aggregate of all other deposits made on any given day;
- Electronic payments including a) an incoming wire transfer received by 4:00 p.m. EST b) an ACH credit when CPM has received both payment in collected funds and information on the account and the amount to be credited.

LONGER DELAYS MAY APPLY

In some cases, involving paper checks, we will not make all of the funds that you deposit available to you as provided above. The first $275 of your deposits, however, will generally be available no later than the first business day after the day of deposit, and usually immediately. If we are not going to make all of the funds from your deposit available on the first business day, we will notify you at the time you make your deposit; or soon after as reasonably practical. We will also tell you when the funds will be available. If your deposit is not made directly to one of our employees or if we decide to take this action after you have left the premises, we will mail you the notice by the day after we receive your deposit. If you will need the funds from a deposit right away, you should ask us when the funds will be available.

Safeguard Exceptions. In addition, funds you deposit by check may be delayed for a longer period under the following circumstances:

- We believe a check you deposit will not be paid.
- You deposit checks totaling more than $6,725 on any one day.
- You redeposit a check that has been returned unpaid.
- You have overdrawn your account repeatedly in the last six months.
- There is an emergency, such as failure of computer or communications equipment.

We will notify you if we delay your ability to withdraw funds for any of these reasons, and we will tell you when the funds will be available. They will generally be available no later than the seventh business day after the day of your deposit.

Special rules for new accounts. If you are a new member, the following special rules may apply during the first 30 days the account is open. Funds from electronic payments (wire transfer and ACH credits) to your account are available on the day we receive the deposit. Funds from deposits of cash and the first $6,725 of a day's total deposits of U.S. Treasury checks, U.S. Postal money orders, Federal Reserve Bank and Federal Home Loan Bank checks, state or local government checks, and checks drawn on CPM accounts are available no later than the first business day after the day of your deposit if the deposit meets certain conditions. For example, the checks must be payable to you and deposited in person to one of our employees. The excess over $6,725 is available by the fifth business day after the day of your deposit. If your deposit of these checks (other than a U.S. Treasury check) is not made in person to one of our employees, the first $6,725 will not be available until the second business day after the day of deposit. Funds from all other check deposits are generally available by the fifth business day after the day of your deposit. However, we may place longer holds on certain items for other reasons, such as large deposits (see Longer Delays May Apply above).

IMMEDIATE AVAILABILITY FOR MOST OTHER ITEMS. Our general availability policy for items not listed in the prior section is to make funds available to you immediately / on the first business day after the day of deposit. We generally make some portion of a day's deposits available for withdrawal immediately. See the previous section for the types and amounts of deposits that are available immediately.

CASHING CHECKS. If we cash a check for you that is drawn on another bank, we may withhold the availability of a corresponding amount of funds that are already in your account. Those funds will be available at the time funds from the check we cashed would have been available if you had deposited it.

OTHER ACCOUNTS. If we accept for deposit a check that is drawn on another bank, we may make funds from the deposit available for withdrawal immediately but delay your availability to withdraw a corresponding amount of funds that you have on deposit in another account with us. The funds in the other account would then not be available for withdrawal until the day the deposited item would have been available, which will usually be the first business day after the day of deposit.

FOREIGN CHECKS. Checks drawn on financial institutions located outside the U.S. (foreign checks) cannot be processed the same as checks drawn on U.S. financial institutions. Foreign checks are exempt from the policies outlined in this disclosure. Generally, the availability of funds for deposit of foreign checks will be delayed for the time it takes us to collect the funds from the financial institutions upon which it is drawn. Foreign checks with no routing numbers and payable in foreign currency are not accepted for deposit. These items must be sent as a collection item. Only foreign checks payable through a U.S. financial institution with routing numbers and payable in U.S. dollars will be available subject to the schedule described in this section.

TRUTH-IN-SAVINGS ACT DISCLOSURE

Share and Checking Accounts

1. Rate Information. The dividend rate and Annual Percentage Yield ("APY") on your accounts are set forth in the Truth-in-Savings Act Rate and Fee Schedule ("Schedule") provided with this Agreement and Disclosures. The dividend rate and APY may change each dividend period as determined by the Credit Union's Board of Directors.
2. Compounding and Crediting. Dividends will be compounded and will be credited as set forth in the Schedule. The Dividend Period ("period") for each of your accounts is set forth in the Schedule. The dividend period begins on the first calendar day of the period and ends on the last calendar day of the period. If your account is closed or you make a withdrawal during a dividend period before dividends are credited, you may not receive accrued but uncredited dividends.
3. Balance Information. Any minimum deposit to open an account, and the minimum average daily balance you must maintain to avoid service fees and to earn the annual percentage yield stated for your account is set forth in the Schedule. "Average Daily Balance Method" Dividends are calculated by the average daily balance method which applies a periodic rate to the average daily balance in your account for the Period. The average daily balance is calculated by adding the balance in your account for each day of the Period and dividing that figure by the number of days in the Period. Accounts with Minimum Balance Requirements: If you fail to maintain the minimum balance required to earn the dividend rate and annual percentage yield for any account as set forth in the Schedule, then you will not earn the dividend rate and annual percentage yield for the period in which you do not meet this requirement
4. Accrual of Dividends. Dividends will begin to accrue on the business day we receive provisional credit for the deposit of noncash items (e.g. checks) to your account. Dividends will begin to accrue on cash deposits on the business day you make the deposit to your account.
5. Transaction Limitations for All Share Savings Accounts. Limitations are set forth in the first section of this Agreement and Disclosures entitled "Membership, Accounts and Account Services Agreement." Additional Limitations for IRA Savings Accounts: You are solely responsible for complying with any requirements including transaction limitations and penalties for early withdrawal under the Internal Revenue Code or other applicable Federal or State law governing any IRA or other Credit Union accounts. Deposits are not limited. Transfers to a Credit Union IRA Certificate are allowed subject to applicable law; and the minimum balance requirements and other restrictions applicable to the Certificate Account.
6. Excessive Transaction Fees. Free Share Savings account transactions are limited to three (3) per month. Additional transactions during a month will cause a fee, as set forth in the Fee Schedule, to be imposed.

TERM SHARE CERTIFICATE ACCOUNTS

(Share Certificate and IRA Certificate Accounts)

- 1. Rate Information. The dividend rate and annual percentage yield on your account are stated in the Schedule and/or your Term Share Certificate. The annual percentage yield reflects the dividends to be paid on your account based on the dividend rate and the frequency of compounding for an annual period. For Fixed Rate Share Certificate and Fixed Rate IRA Certificate Accounts the dividend rate and annual percentage yield are fixed and will be in effect for the term of the account. For Variable Rate Share Certificate and Variable Rate IRA Certificate Accounts the dividend rate and annual percentage yield are variable and may change each dividend period based on the determination of the Credit Union's board of directors. The annual percentage yield assumes that dividends will remain on deposit until maturity. Any withdrawals will reduce your earnings. See Section 9 below regarding changes in terms and changes upon maturity.
- 2. Compounding and Crediting. Dividends will be compounded and credited as set forth in the Schedule. The Dividend Period ("period") for each account is set forth in the Share or Deposit Rate Sheet. The period begins on the first calendar day of the period and ends on the last calendar day of the period.
- 3. Minimum Balance Requirements. The minimum opening deposit required to open any Term Share Certificate Account is set forth in the Schedule. You must maintain an average daily balance equal to or greater than the minimum opening deposit to earn the annual percentage yield and avoid any service charges set forth in the Schedule.
- 4. Balance Computation Information. "Average Daily Balance Method" Dividends are calculated by the average daily balance method which applies a periodic rate to the average daily balance in your account for the Period. The average daily balance is calculated by adding the balance in your account for each day of the Period and dividing that figure by the number of days in the Period.
- 5. Accrual of Dividends. Dividends will begin to accrue on the business day we receive provisional credit for the deposit of noncash items (e.g. checks) to your account. Dividends will begin to accrue on cash deposits on the business day you make the deposit to your account. Once dividends are credited to a certificate account, it becomes principal. If you close your Certificate account before any dividend is credited, you will not receive accrued but uncredited or unpaid dividends.
- 6. Transaction Limitations. In addition to any other applicable limitations described in this Agreement and Disclosures, after a Term Account is opened, you may not make deposits into the account before maturity. After an IRA Certificate Account is opened, you may make additional deposits into the account before maturity; however, your deposits may not exceed the maximum allowed pursuant to applicable law, or as set forth in the Schedule in any single calendar year. You may not make withdrawals of dividends from your account before maturity unless at account opening you arrange for dividend payments, if allowed by the Credit Union.
Additional Deposits: Additional deposits are permitted for Add-On Certificates only. You may make additional deposits to an Add-On Certificate at any time. There is no minimum amount requirement for additional deposits.
- 7. Maturity Date. Your account will mature on the date stated in your Certificate or any Renewal Notice the Credit Unions provides to you.
- 8. Early Withdrawal Penalties -All Certificate Accounts. You have agreed to leave the principal of this account on deposit for the full term stated in your Certificate. If all or part of the principal is withdrawn before the maturity date, the Credit Union may charge you a penalty. Withdrawal of the principal amount of your Certificate may be made only with the consent of the Credit Union. To withdraw below the required minimum balance for your account type you must close the account. Unless stated otherwise, owners of accounts with a stated term of one year or less shall forfeit an amount equal to up to 90 days dividends on the amount withdrawn, or the length of the term, whichever is less, when any withdrawal is allowed. Unless stated otherwise, owners of accounts with a stated term of more than one year shall forfeit an amount equal to up to 180 days dividends on the amount withdrawn, or the length of the term, whichever is less, when any withdrawal is allowed. The penalty may be calculated at the rate paid on the deposit at the time of the withdrawal. The penalty will, if necessary, be taken from the principal amount of the deposit. The Credit Union may grant a premature withdrawal request without penalty or with a reduced penalty in the event of the owner's death or legal incompetence; or if your account is an IRA account and the account is revoked within seven (7) days after the IRA Disclosure Statement is received; or when the account is an IRA account and the owner qualifies pursuant to applicable law.

9. Renewal Policy: Unless you instruct the Credit Union otherwise, your certificate account will automatically renew at maturity. You will have a grace period of ten (10) calendar days after the maturity date to withdraw the funds in the account without being charged an early withdrawal penalty. However, the Credit Union reserves the right to give the owner written notice that the account will not be renewed. In the latter case, upon maturity, the account will be converted to a regular share account and receive earnings at the rate then paid on regular share deposits. The rate of earnings for any renewal terms, shall be at the rate the Credit Union is then offering on the same accounts in this class. If you instruct us not to renew your account, then no dividends will be paid after the stated maturity date. Deceased Member Accounts: If a member single owner or all owners of a multiple party account decease prior to the renewal date, the certificate will not be renewed and will be transferred to the members' savings account; or if no such account matching the ownership is open, then to a general ledger account pending estate resolution of the account. Upon renewal the rate then applicable to the term will be paid.
10. Partial Withdrawal. No partial withdrawal will be permitted at any time that would result in a principal balance of less than the required minimum opening deposit.

COMMON FEATURES OF ALL ACCOUNTS

1. Nature of Dividends. The Credit Union pays dividends from current income and available earnings, after required transfers to reserves at the end of the dividend period, thus dividends are not guaranteed. The Dividend Rate and Annual Percentage Yield set forth in the Share or Deposit Rate Schedule are prospective rates and yields the Credit Union anticipates paying for the applicable dividend period.
2. National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund. Member accounts in this Credit Union are federally insured by the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund.
